Capital Settles Down To Await Germany's Explanation on Arabic

Paris, Aug. 28.—Four German military aeroplanes attempted to make a raid on Paris this morning. They were attacked by a French air flotilla and one of the German machines was shot to pieces in mid air.

The German machines crossed the French lines flying at a great height and driving toward the city of Paris. When over a point to the north of the capital they sighted a French air flotilla which was waiting for them and three of the German aeroplanes wheeled about and headed for the German lines.

Two of the German machines escaped but one was outdistanced by its pursuers and was riddled by bullets. It fell flaming into the forest of Halatte where the burned bodies of two aviators were found.

The fourth machine dropped five bombs at Montmorency, a town 15 miles from Paris. No one was hurt. The batteries at Montmorency opened fire on the aeroplane but it got away in the haze.

Travelers arriving in Paris by train from the north can see, at almost any hour from ten to five, French war planes in the air at the same time protecting the capital from German air raids.

Berlin, Aug. 28.—Teutonic pressure against the Russians in Eastern Galicia has resulted in the piercing of the Russian lines along the Zlotalpa river, it was officially announced today by German army headquarters.

It was also announced that the town of Narew, about 20 miles southeast of Bialystok had been occupied by the Germans.

Since the Austro-Germans in their drive through Galicia in May and June threw the Russians back upon the line of the Dniester and the Zlotalpa and Gnilipa rivers late in June, there has been comparatively no inactivity along this front, so far as the official reports have indicated.

Today's statement from German army headquarters that the Russian lines on the Zlotalpa had been broken through apparently means that the Teutonic forces are renewing their thrusts in Galician territory and have scored a success in the course of an attempt to clear the remainder of that territory of Russian troops which is carried to a conclusion, would result in Russians being forced back into their provinces of Volhynia and Podolia.

The occupation of the town of Narew, also reported today, recedes further advance of the German armies pushing eastward from the Bialystok Bielsk line.

Gee, Look What's Here; The End Of The "First National"

Suppose you would see this walking down Chillum street some fine afternoon! Would you call an officer, the humane society, or get in connection with some insane asylum?

Neither, for this is just what you probably will see here some time in the near future, for this fashion has taken New York city and many other eastern centers by storm.

Take a good look at them. See, they are rolled down—all the way down to the little ankles.

And the white space certainly is not flesh colored hosiery, but is bare skin. Shocking? Yes, but Dame Fashion has her way always, and her slaves follow her whims as if they were law.

The legs (limbs) in this picture were photographed on Broadway, New York, several days ago while the fair dandies, to which they belong, Miss Alice Randolph, strolled down the great thoroughfare followed by the eyes of all the males and envied by numerous females who wondered what had become of the first national bank.

And Miss Randolph incidentally is one of Gotham's society buds, and what society does in New York is all right, so the few remaining warm days that they have over there (if they have any more this summer) will probably see numbers of these types on the streets.

MORE RIOTS IN PORTUGAL

Lisbon, Portugal, Aug. 28. (Via Paris)—The minister of the interior Dr. Silva, announced today in the National Council that a monarchial movement had broken out in northern Portugal. The barracks of a regiment of infantry at Guimaraes, twelve miles south-east of Braga, had been attacked and many persons had been wounded.

Dr. Silva said the government had taken various precautions. Arms and bombs had been seized. The railway bridge at Trofa, has been dynamited but trains are still able to cross. The minister in conclusion said that the situation in Portugal is now normal.

TAFT GIVES EXPO. TALK

San Francisco, Aug. 28.—Former President William Howard Taft, who four years ago turned the first spadeful of earth, marking the beginning of the construction of the Panama-Pacific Exposition was today the principal speaker on the Red Cross day program at the exposition and was for the first time to view the finished work that he began.

Washington, Aug. 28.—Further developments in the situation with Germany now await the Berlin government's official report on the sinking of the Arabic. The state department expects to receive this from Ambassador Gerard as soon as the German admiralty can secure it and meanwhile negotiations are at a standstill.

Negotiations covering the general subject of submarine warfare which it is understood Count Von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, has been instructed by his government to open with a disavowal of Germany's intentions to cause loss of life to Americans when the Lusitania sank will be begun when the state department announces its readiness. These exchanges which are to be a continuation of the diplomatic correspondence will not be encouraged by the United States until the case of the Arabic has been satisfactorily disposed of.

The American government believes that Germany's sincerity in her announcement that her underwater warfare against passenger ships had ended must be established before the Lusitania discussion can continue.

Reiterations by American officials that rights of neutrals will be insisted upon in all quarters is taken by German officials to mean that when it is established that Germany has modified her submarine policy England will be asked to relax the blockade against foodstuffs for Germany.

German officials believe the change of their policy will permit an acceptance by the United States of the concessions which Germany will make when negotiations are reopened.

The state department now regards its case on the Arabic as made up as far as British and American sources of information are concerned. There now remains only the German presentation to afford the department as a basis for final decision.

There was no further announcement today between Secretary Lansing and Count Bernstorff, and it is understood the latter probably will not again call at the state department until his government is ready to submit the statement it has promised in regard to the Arabic incident.

Old Women Will Have Smoke Room

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 28.—A silent group of gray haired women resting easily in comfortable rocking chairs, with thin, blue ribbons of smoke rising from their pipes, will be one of the modernisms at the new $150,000 women's building now in process of completion at the Ramsey county poor farm. For the old ladies are to have an elaborate smoking room, said Mrs. Albert Moore, wife of the farm superintendent today. "If the dear old souls want the walls covered with pictures of race horses, prize fighters and base ball players, they may have them."

EIGHT HOUR DAY AT FAIR

Columbus, August 28.—The eight hour day law will be applied to the employees of the Ohio State Fair which opens here next Monday. The employees in the past have worked upon a basis of ten hours. The state board of agriculture in charge of the fair decided upon the concession to eight hours as an experiment, it being the opinion among members of the commission that the same amount or possibly more work would be accomplished on the basis of eight hours.

POLICE BAFFLED IN MINISTER'S MURDER

Gary, Ind., Aug. 28.—Joseph Kravitz, a powder maker, interrogated by the police today in connection with the murder of the German pastor, Rev. Edmund Kayser, whose body was found near the passenger in Tolleston last Tuesday night, said two men, one of whom "looked like Kayser," recently approached him with a proposition to blow up the Aetna Powder Works, where he is employed. He said he reached an agreement with the two, under which he was to get $1,500 for destroying the Aetna plant, but that later he decided to tell the police instead.

The Gary police today concentrated their attention on the theory that the pastor came to his death as a result of his pro-German sympathies.

VON BEHLER IS HONORED BY KAISER

Amsterdam, Aug. 28 (via London).—Word was received here today from Berlin that General Von Behler, conqueror of Antwerp and Novogeorgievsk had been appointed governor general of the entire occupied Russian territory. This announcement is credited to the Posen Tagblatt which also says the civil administration of Russian Poland, heretofore at Kalisz, has been removed to Warsaw.

CRUISERS NEAR N. Y.

New York, Aug. 28.—A three funneled British cruiser appeared at the Sandy Hook lightship today. At the same time a British cruiser of four funnels was sighted fifteen miles southeast of the lightship.

This is the first appearance of regular British cruisers off the New York coast in the past three weeks. During this period however, an auxiliary cruiser, formerly a Cunard liner, has been patrolling the coast. The auxiliary disappeared several hours before the regular cruisers arrived.

REHEARSING IN EUROPE FOR U. S. TOUR

Madame Fokina.

New York, Aug. 28.—Madame Fokina, who is the premier in the Serge de Diaghilew Ballet Russe, which comes to America next year for a long tour, is now on the shores of Lake Geneva in Switzerland. Here under the direction of the leader Serge de Diaghilew the troupe of over two hundred, which will be brought to America under a guarantee of $500,000, is going through the repertoire of the twelve ballets.

Louise will be their resting place until fall. Then they will go to Liverpool, where the stage decorations and costumes by Leon Bakst, the great Russian master colorist, will be waiting to be embarked.

LOW WAGES CAUSE OF INDUSTRIAL UNREST, COMMISSION LEARNS

Kansas City, Aug. 28.—Low wages was found to be the basic cause of industrial unrest in the report which Frank P. Walsh, chairman of the Federal Commission on Industrial Relations, and the labor members of that body, will present to congress as a result of the commission's two year investigation into the subject.

The report embodying the personal findings of Mr. Walsh and concurred in by Commissioners J. B. Lennon, James O'Connell and Austin B. Garretson, was made public here today.

"The workers of the nation, through compulsory and oppressive methods, legal and illegal are denied the full product of their toil," it was declared in the report and the resulting industrial dissatisfaction was said to have reached "proportions that already menace the social good will and the peace of the nation."

Responsibility for the condition under which they live was placed primarily upon the workers themselves, who "blind to their collective strength and often times deaf to the crisis of their followers have suffered exploitation and the invasion of their most sacred rights without resistance."

TRAVEL DECLINES

Geneva, Switzerland, Aug. 28.—The completeness of the decline in foreign travel in Switzerland owing to the war is indicated by the figures for foreign automobiles crossing the border. Last season the number was over 3,500. This year it was only 150.

WOUNDED BISHOP IS IMPROVED

Winona, Minn., Aug. 28.—Bishop Patrick R. Heffernan, who was shot through the right lung yesterday by the priest, Father Lesches, was resting easily today. His physician reported the bishop's condition as satisfactory. Father Lesches was arraigned today in municipal court charged with assault. Formal hearing was set for September court. The priest stood staring at the floor all through his arraignment. He told the sheriff he had no money with which to retain an attorney.

TRANSFER PRISONERS

Columbus, Aug. 28.—Twenty-six prisoners in the penitentiary declared insane by probate court were taken to the new Lima hospital for the insane today. The prisoners were handcuffed in pairs and were in charge of ten guards. A special car on the Ohio Electric was used to convey the prisoners.

OHIO FAIR AND WARMER TO-NIGHT

Kentucky—Fair, warmer to-night and Sunday.

West Virginia—Partly cloudy tonight and Sunday fair and warmer.

A friend o' mine had a triple celebration at his home yesterday. It was his wedding anniversary, his wife's birthday and the date when he had his appendix cut out several years ago. The papers say that a lot o' Texas towns are successfully doing "without drinkin'" water these days. Texas was settled largely by Kentuckians. Here's the weather for tomorrow:

Ohio—Fair and warmer to-night and Sunday.

Kentucky—Fair, warmer to-night and Sunday.

West Virginia—Partly cloudy tonight and Sunday fair and warmer.

Pests I Have Met... By Van.

No. 20--The I Told You So

Ever meet this pest? Sure you have, just numbers of them. They are on the job after everything that happens with the only expression they can utter—"Well I told you so."

That's him all right. He always knows in advance just what is going to happen and he is in his seventh heaven when he can pull his one good line on anyone.

But in truth he knows very little in fact almost nothing. But there's something wrong with a certain portion of his body and he cannot help it.

The I Told You So, thank for me, is one pest whom we can tolerate without losing our temper.

Another Chapter Written
In The Labor Controversy

Editor Times:—I beg the privilege once more of space in your paper to answer the statements of Mr. Charles Leonard, president of the Bricklayers' Union. He states I should be made an honorary member of the Amalgamated Club, because I said the bricklayers were an outlaw organization, and immediately side-steps with the statement that they are one of the oldest labor organizations in America, which is probably true. While they have advanced in years they are not keeping abreast of the times and are still clinging to the customs and ideas of the age in which their organization was born. In some places over the country they are beginning to rub the cobwebs from their eyes and are seeing the necessity of affiliation, but their progress is slow because of such men as Mr. Leonard has proved himself to be. They are an outlaw organization because they are not affiliated with the A. F. of L.

When the bricklayers affiliated with the Building Trades Council they did so voluntarily, their committee came before the council and asked permission to send their delegates, stating that they were willing to abide by all the rules of the council. They were taken in and given the support of the affiliated crafts, and support was badly needed as a good part of the brick work in the city was being done by non-union men. After they affiliated the work was given to union bricklayers. The bricklayers were given all the support possible by the affiliated crafts, but were never called on to give support to any craft, (with the exception of a small job on Front street) until asked to do so on the Garfield school building.

At that time I went on the building and had a talk with Mr. Lowther, stating what my purpose was in coming there. Mr. Lowther and I then went upon the roof where the bricklayers were working and had a talk with the foreman. I stated to him that we could not get the difficulty in regard to the plumbers' trouble adjusted and it would be necessary for all crafts to leave the building. He told me that the bricklayers could not be pulled off the job because the international organization would not compel them to do so. That the only way they could be pulled off was by international arbitration, which of course would take weeks to accomplish.

I told him that no mention of international arbitration had been made by the bricklayers when they affiliated with the council, but they had agreed to live up to the rules, one of those rules was that no member of the affiliated crafts would work on a building when non-union men of any affiliated craft were employed, that they had received the benefit of this rule themselves and they were requested to in turn give their support to the other crafts.

He then stated that the cornice was not properly weighed down and it would be necessary to get it in safe condition before leaving it. Mr. Lowther and I then got down on the scaffold and looked at the work and found his statements to be true. I asked him how many courses of brick it would be necessary to put on and he said five. I agreed to this and went to the steward and informed him that they were to make the cornice safe and then come off. I then went to the plasterers and told them to use up all mud before coming off.

All crafts came off the building and were off several days, when Mr. Lowther sent for me to come over to his house. I went over and he asked me if the non-union plumbers came off the job if the union men would go back to work. I informed him they would be glad to do so. The plumbers came off the building and all union men went back to work.

A few days later Mr. Joekel, one of the officers of the bricklayers' union from Cleveland, came in here, and called a special meeting of the bricklayers' local and requested me to be present and state what caused the trouble on the Garfield school building, which I did.

Mr. Joekel said he believed the journeymen plumbers were in the right and should be supported, but he did think he should have been notified of the trouble before the bricklayers came off but as everybody was back at work it was all right anyhow, and asked that in case of trouble at the school building again to notify him at once and he would be in here within twenty-four hours at least, and I promised him I would do so.

When the trouble occurred the second time on the school building we did not ask any craft to come off at once, but I immediately wired Mr. Joekel as he requested, and waited twenty-four hours, but hearing nothing from him at the end of that time I called him up over long distance phone at his home in Cleveland and asked him if he received my telegram. He said he did but must wait for orders from Mr. Dodson, and to go to Mr. Kaps and tell him to wire the facts to Dodson. Then Dodson would wire him and he would come at once. I went to Mr. Kaps and told him what Joekel had said, but he refused to wire headquarters, saying that when Mr. Joekel was here he had told him that the men could not be compelled to come off the building.

The following morning I decided to put the bricklayers to the test and ask them to come off with the other crafts. They came off, but in a short while Leonard and Parsons went back to work again, but I am glad to say that the rest of the bricklayers showed that they were not card men but union men and stayed away from the job.

The Building Trades Council then demanded that the bricklayers take some action in regard to Leonard and Parsons. They stated they could not do so, as the international would not compel them to come off and would not sustain any fines that may be placed upon them. In about two weeks Mr. Joekel and Mr. Wakefield came in and called a meeting which was held over the Bismark cafe.

I was requested to come over to their meeting and Mr. Wakefield wanted to know why it was that union men of other crafts would refuse to recognize the cards of Leonard and Parsons, and I stated the reason. He then gave us the old song and dance about international arbitration, and I told him of my efforts along that line with Mr. Joekel and all that had passed between Mr. Kaps, Mr. Joekel and myself. Both gentlemen were present at the meeting, and neither one could deny a word of what was said. After which Mr. Wakefield had nothing to say about arbitration. Mr. Joekel then took the floor and stated they wished to remain members of the Building Trades Council, but that they could give no more than financial and moral support, that it was up to the men if they wanted to come off the job. There was nothing to prevent them from doing so, but if they refused this local could not compel or place any fine upon them. He then offered this suggestion, that the bricklayers be permitted to remain in the council. They would give their financial and moral support and leave the public under the impression that they were backing the council and af-iliated crafts up in every respect. I told him that unless the bricklayers gave the same support that they received from other crafts, that they were not wanted in the council. He then requested the council would take no action until he could receive word from headquarters. The council waited nearly two weeks and hearing nothing further from him, threw the bricklayers out, they did not withdraw as has been stated.

The Building Trades Council was in a growing and prosperous condition long before the bricklayers were taken in, and I assure Mr. Leonard the two or three dollars paid in by his organization will never be missed.

The council is not in the least danger of being dissolved because the bricklayers were thrown out. And in regard to my going back on the farm and renewing my associations with my yellow dog, I will say that I would rather have nothing but yellow dogs as associates the rest of my days, rather than associate with men who have proved traitors to the union cause. Mr. Leonard says that I have branded him as a "scab", but he is very much mistaken. I have never yet called any man that name, and trust I never shall. A man who has proved himself so unworthy as to be called that name has fallen to the lowest depth that any mortal can fall, but if he wishes to apply that name to himself, I have no objection to him doing so, and shall give him full credit for calling a spade a spade.

Mr. Leonard says the carpenters refuse to work on the same jobs with him. I would meekly suggest that he rub the cobwebs from his eyes and find out just what the situation is in regards to himself. When he and Parsons went to work on the Garfield school house, all members of crafts affiliated with the council refused to work on the same job where they were employed, but since the bricklayers have been thrown out of the council, all crafts affiliated with the Building Trades Council will work on union or non-union brick work. They will work when Leonard and Parsons or any other non-union bricklayers are employed, but will not work where non-union men of any affiliated craft are employed, and there are non-union carpenters, painters and plumbers employed where Leonard is working. That is the reason the union men will not work on the jobs where you are at Mr. Leonard, it is not because you are there, the union men do not need me or any one else to tell them to stay off this work. There is a principle involved which you seem to know nothing about. It's a union principle. For if you had known what this principle was, you would never have gone to work on the school building, and thus brought your local into dispute with the other crafts. It is not the fear of the law, but that which makes unnecessary the law, and when you found no longer penalty of the law before you, and having the principle to guide you, you did not hesitate to trample under foot the obligation of your union.

SADNESS
RUSSIA

Berlin, Aug. 28 (by wireless to Sayville).—The Overseas News Agency today gave out the following:

Private reports reaching Berlin state that the rapid succession of German victories has caused depression all over Russia, especially at Petrograd, where there is much uneasiness. The loss of Vilna, Dvinsk and Grodno is expected. Captured Russian state that they were without officers and that no ammunition or food was distributed.

Willis To Appoint
Civil Service Men

Columbus, Aug. 28.—On Monday Governor Willis will appoint Dr. Z. B. Campbell of Ada, Republican, and S. D. Webb, of Athens county and Columbus, Democrat members of the new State Civil Service commission created by the Moore-Barnes law which goes into effect on that day. The new law reduces the membership of the civil service board from three to two members and makes it bi-partisan by providing for two members of opposite political faith. Charles German, of Fostoria, Republican, retires from the old board.

These three men were placed on the present board when Governor Willis, some weeks ago, secured the resignations of S. A. Hoskins, Columbus; Charles Bryson of Athens and Charles I. Brown of Findlay, as members of that body. The general impression has been around the state house that the chief executive would retain Campbell and Webb and that German would retire. The members receive the same salaries under the law as under the old one. W. E. Kershner, of Columbus, formerly of Columbus Grove, Republican, it is understood, will continue as secretary. His salary is $3,000 a year. Immediately after the announcement of the appointments a test suit, it is said, will be started by opponents of the law in the Franklin county common pleas court. This suit will be filed by Attorney General Timothy S. Hogan and Attorney George B. Okey. Pro-forma entries will be asked for so that the suit can be hurried to the supreme court for final determination of the question of whether or not the new law is valid. This court was agreed upon at a conference which these attorneys held with Attorney General Turner.

RUSSIANS MEET TO PLAN REORGANIZATION

Moscow, Russia, Aug. 28 (via London).—After a series of conferences held by the business men and the representatives of the public bodies in Moscow, such as the Zemstvos, or provincial district councils, and municipalities participating in the work of preparing war stores a resolution was adopted today declaring that the lack of co-ordination between the Russian cabinet ministers and the uncertain course of the government were hindering the efforts of the munition producers and that the ministry should be re-organized under the guidance of an energetic premier.

The newspapers intimate that the appointment of M. Krivoshein the minister of agriculture to succeed Jan L. Goremykin as prime minister is imminent.

Officials Confer
With Wales Miners

London, Aug. 28.—Although it has been announced that Walter Runciman, president of the board of trade who acted as arbitrator in the recent coal strike, would decline to see a deputation of miners, Mr. Runciman and David Lloyd-George minister of munitions conferred for half an hour today with the committee representing the men which came to London from Cardiff yesterday. Little was accomplished of views on both sides. A further conference will be held Monday with representatives of the mine owners participating. Although dissatisfaction with Mr. Runciman is spreading the men's leaders are standing firmly against another strike at this time.

Nevertheless reports from the coal fields today stated that 4,000 more men had quit work.

BUYS BALTIMORE NEWS.

Baltimore, Md., Aug. 28.—An announcement was made today of the sale by Frank A. Munsey of the Baltimore News, and the Munsey building to Stuart Oliver, who has been general manager of Mr. Munsey's Baltimore interests for the past eight years. It is understood that the transaction involved an amount in the neighborhood of four million. Mr. Oliver announced that he "stands alone in purchasing these properties, having no alliance with any financial or corporation interests."

RURAL SCHOOLS WILL BE AT KORN KARNIVAL

Initial steps to include the rural schools in the big "Children's Parade" during the Korn Karnival were taken by County Superintendent E. O. McCowen at the meetings of the boards of education and the rural teachers at the high school building Saturday morning.

He first outlined the plan to the teachers at their meeting, and found that almost without exception, they entered heartily into the plan. They will be advised from time to time of the progress of the plan.

No official action was taken at the board's meeting relative to closing the schools on that day, but it will be taken up separately by each board at its next meeting. No opposition developed to the plan, and Mr. McCowen is sanguine that all, or the big majority of the schools will be closed on that day.

One big section of the parade will be made up of the school children, and it is hoped to have over 2,000 of them in the pageant.

remember her many acts of kindness and friendly deeds.

Mrs. Bennett had made her home with her daughter for several years. She was united in marriage twice, the first time to Theodore Slattery who died, leaving one child, now Mrs. David Deemer of New Boston. The second time she was united in marriage to R. E. Bennett who passed to the Great Beyond ten years ago survived by his wife and the following children: Mrs. Will Kent of Sciotoville, Warren Bennett of Sciotoville, Miss Chloe Bennett of Sciotoville. Three children died in infancy. Harvey Bennett who was located in San Francisco at the time of the earthquake, was never heard of after that time.

Funeral services will be held Sunday morning at 9:30 o'clock at Harrisonville. Interment will be made in Fairview cemetery. Rev. Eileen of the Wheelersburg M. E. church will conduct the last rites.

Mrs. Victoria Sinnott

Word was received here that Mrs. Victoria Sinnott, the mother of Mrs. Sarah Chapman, died at her home at Greenup, Ky. Mrs. Sinnott was 76 years of age and leaves the following children to mourn her loss: Mrs. Sarah Chapman, of Ironton; Mrs. Lucy Colegrove, of Mossy Bottom, Ky., and Mrs. Edith Garthie and Alphi Sinnott, of Greenup.—Irontonian.

Glady's M. Sizemore

In memory of our beloved little daughter, Glady's Mildred Sizemore, who died at her home in Stearnsville, New Boston, Ohio, Saturday morning Aug. 29, 1914, at 9 o'clock of whooping cough and mumps. She was 2 years, 10 days old. She leaves a heart-broken mother and father and one sister, 4 brothers to mourn her loss. She was the joy and the light of our home and we will always miss our sweet baby.

Those little lips so sweet to kiss
Are closed forever now;
Those sparkling eyes that shone
So bright are hid forever now.

The little bed is empty now,
The little clothes laid by—
A mother's hope a father's joy
In death's cold arms doth die.

Our dear little Gladys has gone to rest.
Her plays and cares are o'er;
Her baby hands and little lips
Will no'er caress us more.

Where e'er we turn there is a gloom,
Our home is sad and still;
Oh, our hearts are breaking since
she's gone,
Still we know it is God's will.

Going Ahead With Plans For Block

Architect Richard M. Bates was Saturday notified by Judge James W. Bannan and Simon Lebold to prepare plans for the new Grand Opera House building at Fourth and Chillicothe streets, which will be practically rebuilt.

The owners made a proposition to The Kresge company, who are after one of the ground floor rooms, and H. H. Servis, a representative of the company, has returned to Detroit to put the matter up to officials of his company. Mr. Lebold and Judge Bannan feel confident that the proposition they have made to the firm will be accepted and that Portsmouth will soon have another store on Chillicothe street.

NEGRO WHO IS OUT ON PAROLE FOR FORGERY ATTEMPTS TO PASS ANOTHER BAD CHECK

When Robert Moore, colored, was brought into police court Saturday morning on a charge of attempting to forge a check on Reinhart and Dennis contractors, confessed that he was on parole from the Mansfield reformatory on a similar charge and asked that the authorities be notified to come and get him. Moore admitted to the police that he attempted to pass a forged check but claimed he did not write it, saying that he was unable to write.

Teachers Chosen
At New Boston

New Boston Board of Education met Friday evening with Members Frank Taylor, J. C. Harris and John Noel present. C. E. Ross, of last year's high school faculty, was chosen as superintendent to succeed S. D. Eckhart.

Supt. Eckhart presented the following list of teachers, which were approved, and salaries fixed as follows: John F. Warner, $950; Edna E. Geist, $750; N. E. Riecke, $500; Clifford Shaver, $500; Vernon Smith, $400; Alma Davis, $350; Etta McCarty, $450; Bessie Aeh, $450; Cassie Holmes, $450; Grace Schoonover, $500; Edith Wilson, $400; Lucy McCormick, $400; Myrtle Thomas, $400; J. E. Shaver, $550.

The last three named are new teachers, the others being in the two schools last year. Considerable wrangling was indulged in before the list was approved. J. E. Shaver who had his application in, has been teaching in Lakeside, and member Frank Taylor wanted him to stay at that school, which is in Porter township school district. A schedule of bills amounting to $1,097.02 was allowed.

Will Get
$4,500

Residents of Portsmouth and Scioto county, who purchased Ford automobiles between August 1, 1914 and August 1, 1915 will in a few days begin receiving refunds of $50 on each machine. Agent Will J. Friel has sold 90 Fords with this stipulated time and which means that purchasers of these cars will get $4,500 back on the machines, $50 being refunded to each purchaser.

Will Take Trip

Frank Amann, Market street druggist will leave Maudy on a ten days' trip to Buffalo and Niagara Falls.

OBITUARY

Martin Compton

Martin Compton, 71, passed to the Great Beyond Saturday morning at 3:40 o'clock at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Charles Higgins, 3033 Gallia street, East Portsmouth.

Four months ago the deceased came from Soldier, Ky., to live with his daughter, Mrs. Higgins. He had led a retired life for a number of years. His wife died over a year ago at Soldier, Ky.

Friday afternoon about five o'clock Mr. Compton was stricken with paralysis which caused death. Five children survive to mourn the death. They are Mrs. William Padan and Mrs. Louis Oldham of St. Louis, Mo.; Mrs. Charles Higgins of East Portsmouth, Mrs. Ray Dillon, of Champaign, Ill., and H. N. Compton of Olive Hill, Ky.

The remains will be taken to Soldier, Ky., Monday morning, where interment will be made.

FREE TEXT BOOKS ARE FAVORED BY COUNTY EDUCATION BOARDS

Rain and bad roads kept down the attendance at the annual meeting of the boards of education at the high school building Saturday morning, but a fair crowd was present, despite the unfavorable weather conditions. Seventeen of the twenty-three boards were represented, either all or in part, and all of them took keen interest in the proceedings.

J. L. Clifton, of Columbus, assistant state superintendent of public instruction, delivered a profitable talk at the session. His remarks had to do mainly with the financial problems that beset the board members all over the state, and he cleared up several features of the new school law which have been a bit hazy to his auditors.

Mr. Clifton strongly advocated the boards of every district which are confronted with a financial deficit to issue bonds covering a period of five years to pay off the indebtedness, and retire them each year with the use of state aid money. He outlined the procedure clearly, and made it plain to the members how to rid themselves of one of their gravest problems.

Centralization is favored. He also came out strongly for the centralization of rural schools and urged the board members to bring about such a condition in their districts as soon as practicable. He begged the members to use their best efforts to bring about better school conditions for their children than they themselves enjoyed, to look and plan for the future rather than to live in the past and present, and to contribute their part in the movement to make the schools of Ohio the best in the land.

Mr. Clifton was given loud applause at the close of his speech, which was listened to with the closest attention. He was asked numerous questions by the members and by the county superintendent, which he answered clearly and distinctly.

County Superintendent E. O. McGowan presided at the session, and opened the meeting with a short talk, outlining the plans for the coming year.

A round table discussion of subjects pertinent to school affairs was an important feature of the meeting, the members taking unusual interest in the discussions, for which they were highly complimented by Mr. Clifton, who said it indicated the proper spirit.

Among the subjects discussed were: The greatest need in our schools; to what extent is consolidation practical in your district; shall all schools begin on the same date; is the one-room school serving the community as well as when you were a boy; salaries of teachers; what is the most important branch to be taught in our rural schools; shall we have one tenant officer for the entire county; the superintendent's part in the employment of teachers; tardiness of children; conditions in the districts; and suggestions for improvement of the schools.

London, Aug. 28.—As the Russian armies continue to retreat the foreign and war ministries at Petrograd deny vigorously that they give any thought of making a separate peace with the Central Powers. Special dispatches from Petrograd state that the Russians are on the point of digging themselves in.

Military writers at the Russian capital are of the opinion that the German turning movement in Courland is not likely to threaten Petrograd seriously this autumn, as Field Marshal Von Hindenburg apparently has made no progress in his efforts to secure control of the Baltic coast. The latest news from that region however, indicates that Germany has not given up the plan for naval co-operation toward this end. Berlin reports that German warships homed at two points Dago Island which commands the entrance to the Gulf of Finland. The Russian foreign minister, M. Sazonoff, declares emphatically that there is no disagreement among the Allied commanders and that while a German soldier remains on Russian soil there can be no peace. The greatest interest displayed here is reports from Washington of the negotiations between the United States concerning the Arabic incident. Most of the newspapers consider that President Wilson has won a diplomatic success, the effect of which on the whole question of submarine warfare is certain to be momentous.

Notwithstanding the orders of their leaders, four thousand more Welsh miners have quit work. The advisability of government control of coal mines is again being discussed seriously.

Dr. A. G. Sellards, of Waller street, continues quite a sick man. He has been ill for several weeks.

John T. Miller, one of the pioneer residents of the city, has been quite ill for several days at his home on Fourth street. Mr. Miller is one of the oldest Odd Fellows in the Buckeye State.

Word came from Rochester, Minn., Saturday, that George R. Lockwood was gradually regaining his strength and that he would be able to leave next Tuesday or Wednesday for his home in Portsmouth. Mr. Lockwood was recently operated on by Mayo Bros.

Mrs. Belle Hemphill, mother of James Hemphill, postmaster at McGaw, is confined to her home with illness.

Callie Alcorn, of Queens Vista, who was bit on the ankle Tuesday by a copperhead snake, is unable to be on her feet. The mule is swollen to twice its normal size.

Cincinnati, Aug. 28.—Reports that Charles Peckinpaugh, aged farmer who was found dead in a corn field near his home at Camp Dennison Thursday, may have been the victim of an attack caused by a visit of the county authorities to the Peckinpaugh home early today. It was reported that he had had some trouble with others and that an examination of his body showed evidences of an attack. A post mortem examination was made and it was found that the cause of his death was a rupture of one of the large blood vessels in his head. At the formal taking of testimony at the coroner's inquest the questioning of witnesses will be centered in an effort to ascertain if the rupture was superinduced by any exciting cause such as fight.

The farmer was discovered dead by his widow who searched for him when he failed to return for dinner.

CHAIRMAN IS TO MAKE REPORTS

Charles Daehler, president of the Retail Merchants' association, announced Saturday afternoon that chairman of the various Korn Carnival committees would be present at Monday night's meeting, which is to be one of considerable importance. "We will get a detailed report from each committee," Mr. Daehler said Saturday afternoon.

Jackson Paper Has Boost For Dr. Ray

Concerning the coming of Dr. W. A. Ray to Portsmouth the Jackson Herald says:

"A change of business of considerable importance was made this week when Dr. Ray and Dr. Morgan disposed of their business here to Dr. Ray of Byers who will probably move here about the first of October. Dr. Morgan will, for the greater part of next year, take a post-graduate course in eye, ear and nose work at some point in the east, and later choose another location. Dr. W. A. Ray for years a very successful and favorite physician here has sold his property to Dr. Ray and has purchased a home at Portsmouth. He has further secured a suite of office rooms in the new First National bank building, where he will do special work. We are sure that the River City will find in Dr. Ray an excellent addition to the profession and one exceptionally proficient in his chosen lines of work."

N. &amp; W. Exhibit Is To Be Feature

For several months past the management of the Korn Carnival has been in correspondence with the Agricultural & Industrial Department of the Norfolk & Western Railway Company with the object of securing for the Korn Carnival week their tent exhibit shown at the fairs and carnivals along their line, and it was announced definitely Saturday that the exhibit would be shown here during the Carnival.

This exhibit is assembled under the direction of the Agricultural & Industrial Department, of which Mr. F. H. LaBarre is the Agricultural and Industrial Agent. Wherever it is possible they make their display in a framed tent, in size 15x21 feet. The exhibit is made up of attractive agricultural, mineral and manufactured products to the number of several hundred; also a dozen or more beautiful photographs and oil paintings in color, but the central feature of the display is a miniature reproduction of the buildings on the Norfolk and Western railway farm at Ivor, Va.

This is very attractive and interesting in the extreme. The exhibit is in charge of Mr. Emmet H. Steiger, Exhibit Agent, who is assisted by a number of representatives, all of them ready and willing at all times to answer questions pertaining to the possibilities along the Norfolk and Western railway.

QUALITY AND PRICE.

Those wise enough to run the business of each one in particular and the affairs of the world in general are most insistent in saying that now is the time to acquire to ourselves the markets of the five continents and the isles of the seas because England can not properly attend to her former share of it and Germany, once the third most powerful trader, is now shut out entirely.

Along with the insistence that the opportunity is here and the peremptory injunction to hustle out and grasp it goes the accusation, to hold the trade once secured, the quality of American goods must be up to the quality fixed by the Germans, there not lacking an insinuation that home manufacturers are rather dishonest and dishonorable in the standard of quality they fix, being in this respect rather below the foreigner.

It is well enough for those that know it all and then some to direct others how they should proceed to their success and we suppose American manufacturers are duly appreciative and grateful of the advice. As for ourselves, we believe the slur that American manufacturers are prone to furnish shoddy rather than quality goods is solely gratuitous. American manufacturers make anything that will sell profitably, which means what a considerable number will buy. There are millions in this country that are looking for the cheap thing, not for the good. Both manufacturer and merchant has to cater to them, or at least find it profitable in many instances so to do. But in the main that neither affects the character of our manufacturers and the quality of their output. Make what the markets want and there is no better market than the home. The consumer can get all the quality he wants, by paying for it. There can be no greater quality deception in the world than in cutlery, yet America leads the world in the production thereof, because she makes the best at any price. American shoes are with ever expanding certainty annexing the world markets to themselves. The reason is that in style, workmanship and quality there is nothing from elsewhere to compare with them. We sell better locomotives, better sewing machines, better electrical appliances and gas furnishings than any other nation, and under sell them in the open markets.

If the world has got any money left after the war is over, it can get them in any quantity or quality desired, and don't forget there will always be some one on the ground to sell them.

Contestant Zoellner offers this tireless worker one-half the prize he himself may win in The Times corn contest, if he will only come out and take a hand at gathering and shucking the crop. That would be easy money, were there not six other contestants every one swearing he would beat Friend Zoellner anywhere from ten to fifty bushels. But we wouldn't take it, if he were the only one in the contest. Out in Missouri we were regarded as the amateur corn shucker, but we disdained to go into a field that promised less than 150 bushels to the acre. Besides it's our business to encourage farmers to raise more corn and harvest it, and that generally implies shucking it.

We never pass old Athletic park without wondering why the city permits it to be converted into a miasmic pond. We are no expert, but we'll give it as our opinion that the cost of curing the sickness that resulted from the foulness thereof is greater than will ever be the worth of the land that is being made by the slow process of converting it into a pond.

New Boston can not be said to be metropolitan in either size or appearance, but her extensive scale of improvements underway show she is a real live town. With better streets and walks premises generally will be tidied up and she will be regarded as some pumpkins, which she is.

We have it again, its an ill wind that blows nobody good. Heretofore this country has been buying the bulk of its dye stuffs from Germany. A practical embargo against exports from that country has forced manufacturing concerns in that country making dyes and hereafter the American market will get its principal supply at home.

It will be noted that whenever science invents a new disease it also comes along with the invention of a cure. Somehow though the cure is not as certain as the disease and that is why our ailments are ever on the increase.

And so the Japs have decided to get more actively into the fracas. Well, that spells more trouble for the poor reader, for that will precipitate another inundation of names that are names.

As a side issue to her brush with Austria, Italy has declared war on King Alcohol and has revoked 1,500 liquor licenses in the city of Milan alone.

May be that the Germans love peace so much is the reason why they fight so hard. You know it was always said of Grant that he swore he would have peace, even if he had to fight for it, and he sure was some fighter. By the way, it's about time this war was developing its Grant.

One thing can be passed up to the Red Cross—it has never been known to hide its light under a bushel.

BREATHING EASIER.

THE CITIZENS' CAMP.

A company of New York millionaires and lawyers, which later the former carry as an indispensable part of their retinue, are encamped at Plattsburgh and get a deal of publicity, and, possibly, some fun in playing tin soldiers for a week, just a week.

As it is publicity and not pleasure they are after they will be altogether satisfied when they fold their tents, Sunday and take the Pullman back to "little old New York."

But why this desire for publicity that makes men of vast affairs desert their usual avocations and diversions and rough it in the rather rude and crude military camp? The answer to that the people of these United States ought to give themselves gravely to finding out. It goes without the saying, that the class of men, now encamped at Plattsburgh, would not take a week of their time for a mere frolic of this sort. Neither is it necessary to say they have not joined the militia for a term of service therein. They would not give the time for the period of enlistment to annual encampment, to say nothing of attendance at weekly drills. Past experience makes it certain enough no considerable portion of them would enlist in the event of this country becoming involved in war. In apparent frankness they admit their purpose in brief parade at soldiering is to arouse interest among the masses in the citizenry soldier and raise the militia to where in time of need it will be an efficient fighting machine. That sounds all pretty fine, but why don't the millionaires join "the militia" themselves and get on speaking terms with powder and lead? That's the question and the answer to it lies farther back than a benevolent patriotism on the part of the Plattsburgh publicity agents.

The best definition we have seen on a liberal-minded person is one who boasts of what he would do in kindness, if he had the money. Which the same it appears that a liberal mind and an open pocket book are two different propositions.

Mr. Taft says the mistake of President Wilson was not in recognizing Huerta as president of Mexico. May be he ought to know, since it can be assumed he takes it the mistake of President Taft was not in recognizing the same old Indian.

Old men for council, young men for war. We believe it. Only look at what those giddy youths, Von Bissing 71, Von Heeringen 69, Von Mackensen 65 and Von Kluck 69, are doing in the way of fighting.

Germany and Uncle Sam seem in a fair way to smooth away the misunderstanding between them. That's surely the right and acceptable thing to do.

The American Red Cross announces it will shortly withdraw all its ministrations from the European war zone. Which may mean it has now got all the publicity that pays.

When the air is full of dust
And your head's about to bust;
When you're longing for a breeze,
And you sneeze and sneeze and sneeze—
You've got it!

When your brain is all a-fire,
And your head seems bound in wire;
When your eyes can't bear the light
And your face is swollen tight;

When there's no chance for rest,
With a ton weight on your breast;
When your eyes refuse to sleep,
And you weep and weep and weep—
You've got it!

When you've all you can endure
And your friends come with a cure;
Too worn and weary to resist,
You take each as they insist;
When you know it's useless to try,
And they lie and lie and lie—
You've got it!

New York, August 28.—The hotel men in Manhattan have been rising hotly to refute the charges that they are cold hearted, mercenary and un hospitable. Some time ago Dr. Frank Craze, who quit the ministry because he thought he could do more good reporting, dashed off a somewhat heated article to prove that the hotels were the most cheerless places this side of the North Pole.

It stirred up a hornet's nest. George C. Boldt, who has just leased the Waldorf for $800,000 a year despite the hotel trend up-ward, says that the modern hotel offers more hospitality than the old style where the landlord met you at the door by improving the service.

MAKE THE ROADS BETTER

BY JESSE TAYLOR

Editor of "Better Roads and Streets"

The new road law known as the "Cass Bill" will take effect Monday, September 6, 1915, and in it will be found many new and helpful provisions.

The Board of County Commissioners of any county have power to construct a public road by laying out and building a new road, or by improving, reconstructing, or repairing and existing public road or part thereof by grading, paving, draining, dragging, graveling, macadamizing, resurfacing or applying dust preventives, or by otherwise improving the same.

The filing of a petition signed by at least fifty-one per cent of the land or lot owners, residents of a county, who are to be specially taxed or assessed for said improvement, with the board of county commissioners, will make it compulsory for the commissioners to act within sixty days.

The county commissioners may, with the presentation of a petition, take the necessary steps to construct, improve or repair a public road or a part thereof upon the passage of a resolution by unanimous vote declaring a necessity therefor.

For the purpose of providing by taxation a fund for the payment of the counties portion of the cost and expenses of constructing, improving, maintaining, dragging, and repairing roads the county commissioners are authorized to levy a tax not exceeding two mills upon each dollar of the taxable property of the said county. Said levy shall be in addition to all other levies authorized by law for road purposes, but subject to the limitation on the combined maximum rate for all taxes now in force.

The county commissioners may let the work as a whole or in convenient sections as may be determined. They shall award the contract to the lowest and best bidder.

Before entering into a contract the county commissioners shall require a contractor to execute a bond payable to the State of Ohio. Such bond shall be conditioned for the payment of all material and labor furnished for or used in the construction of the road for which such contract is made.

The board of county commissioners may extend a proposed road improvement into or through a municipality when the consent of the council of said municipality has been first obtained, and such consent shall be evidenced by the proper legislation of the council of said municipality entered upon its record.

The council of the municipality must approve such plans, specifications, profiles, cross-sections and estimates, and such council may enter into agreement with the board of county commissioners as to the part of the estimated cost and expenses of said improvement that is to be paid by the municipality.

The county highway superintendent shall erect and maintain at the cross roads, on inter-county and main market roads, suitable sign posts of a design to be prescribed and provided by the state highway commissioner, showing the names of the roads and the direction and distance to nearby villages and cities.

The highway superintendent shall build a substantial fence at least four and one-half feet high and painted white on the open side of all winding grades of at least four per cent.

The county highway superintendent, under the direction of the state highway commissioner, shall provide for the maintenance and repair of the roads of the county, under such system as may be determined expedient, so that each section of the highways of the county shall be under proper supervision and be effectively and economically improved, maintained and repaired.

The county commissioner may purchase such machinery or other equipment for construction, improvement, maintenance or repair of highways, bridges and culverts under their jurisdiction, as they may deem necessary, which shall be paid for out of any taxes levied and collected for construction, improvement, maintenance and repair of roads.

becoming smaller and smaller as the dramatic art progresses. The latest thing in diminutive playhouses is the Little Thimble Theatre which will hold 150 persons. The craze for tiny theatres will probably reach its zenith when one is built that will hold only the author.

After all things even up sooner or later. The rich, for instance, gets the ice in the summer and the poor in the winter. Ray Rohn is wondering how the law of compensation will treat him. He was packing up for a motor trip through Maine when he got a summons to serve on a jury for two weeks.

He thought it would be easy and went around to see a politician friend in his ward and learned that the politician had strung along with the Bull Moose last year and was bankrupt politically.

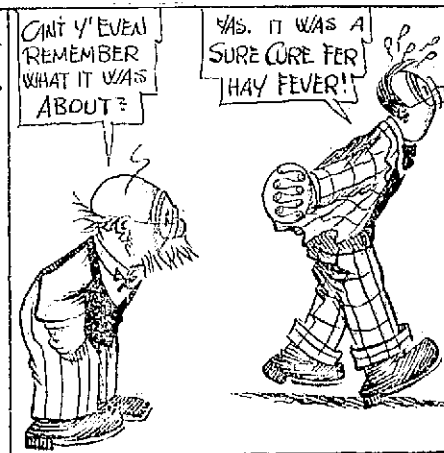

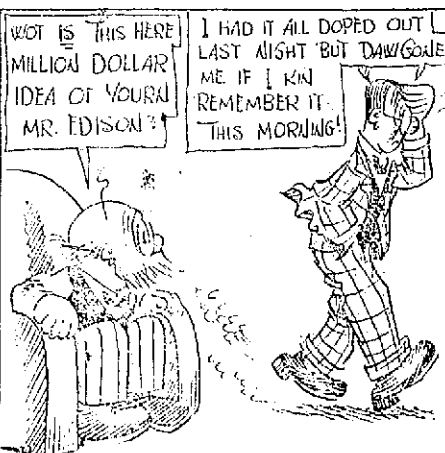

It would not have come quite so hard for Rohn if R. M. Brinkerhoff, another artist had not been present when Rohn got the summons. It seems that several years ago Rohn enjoyed a hearty laugh when Brinkerhoff spent his vacation in bed with the measles.

"Summer Love" is the name of a new song that Broadway whistles. Irene Franklin tried it out in a Forty-Eighth street theatre and it caught the fancy of the crowds which goes to show that you never can tell. The song was originally written for a play that was never produced and it was placed on the shelf never to be revived. By accident it was—and another hit was born so there you are.

William F. Conner, who for years managed the American tours of Sarah Bernhardt, is arranging for the present world tour of the French actress. The Divine One will appear at the New Amsterdam Theatre in New York which is soon to be vacated by the Folies. While the loss of a limb has crippled her quite noticeably, the actress declares that the fever of her art will make the audience forget she is a cripple.

The Most Abused Word In The Dictionary—"Guaranteed"

Everybody who conducts a store is ready to say "We guarantee" until the word has lost its power.

We have tried in this store for years to live up to the spirit of this word without juggling with the letter. If you ever buy an article here that does not prove satisfactory, this store stands ready to replace merchandise, or to satisfy you in any other reasonable way.

Further, our advertising is our word to you that we will make good at all times any statement appearing over our name in any advertisement. We do not make much ado about the word "Guarantee", but we are conscientiously devoted to the principle of making good.

This is our idea of "Guaranteed."

NEW YORK STOCKS

New York, Aug. 28.—Today's short session of the stock market lacked the activity and excitement which featured recent operations. Trading was light and again confined to war shares and copper, with a sprinkling of unclassified issues. Tennessee Copper was the only heavy issue of the active group, falling four points to 51½. Pittsburgh Coal issues added to recent gains on reports of new finance which will provide for back payment on the preferred stock. The common rose 3 points to 38 and the preferred 6½ to 108½. United States Steel led the list in volume of offerings but yielded fractionally. The closing was irregular. Bonds were lower. Moderate dealings in war shares and copper featured today's early trading. General Electric and Baldwin Locomotive together with American Car and Allied Chalmers were the most prominent industrials, while Guggenheim Exploration and National Lead led the metal group. American Linsed was a point higher at 21½ and United Railways preferred rose 1½ to 42½. Pittsburgh Coal advanced 2 points to 37. Tennessee Copper yielded a point to 51½, soon declining to 51½. There were virtually no dealings in the railways, where the only change of note was a five point advance to 60 in Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis preferred.

The editorial adds: "If this really has been accomplished the president has struck a shrewd blow for peace in other continents than the Americas. Other nations can do the same and Germany's claim to be her own judge in such matters is once and for all shattered."

The Standard in an editorial on the subject expresses the opinion that there are several good reasons for supposing that Count Von Bernstorff, Germany's ambassador to the United States is not bluffing but it is not probable Germany will abandon her "submarine savagery" altogether.

"There would be fierce complaints over the relinquishing of so potent a weapon at American dictation," says the Standard. The primary reason for the concession is doubtless the conviction that Mr. Wilson's patience is nearly exhausted and that his next step would mean business."

SOCIETY

The many friends of Mr. Ben Hitchcock, second son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hitchcock, of Waller street, will be surprised to hear that he is to be married Sunday morning to Miss Jess Lee Muller, of Henderson, Ky., who has been spending the past two weeks at the home of Mrs. F. C. Goodwin, on Fourth street. Miss Muller is an attractive young woman, who visited four years ago at the Goodwin home, where Mr. Hitchcock first met her, and the friendship soon ripened into love. Mr. Hitchcock, Miss Muller and Mrs. F. C. Goodwin left this afternoon in the Hitchcock machine for Cincinnati, where they will be joined Sunday by Miss Muller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Muller, of Henderson, Ky., and the young couple will be married tomorrow morning in Cincinnati. They will return to Portsmouth after a short trip and make their home at Monroe, where the groom is manager of the Washington Coal Company.

Mrs. W. G. Williams entertained informally at lunch today, at one o'clock, in honor of her guests, Mrs. Anna Reynolds, of Huntington, and Miss Ruth Love, of Louisville, Ky., also for Mrs. S. B. Alderson, of Topeka, Kansas. Other guests were Mrs. Irving Drew, Mrs. T. J. Patterson, Mrs. Archibald Sommer, and guest, Miss Naomi Whitaker, of Cincinnati.

Mrs. William Sowers and son, Clark, have gone to Columbus to visit Mrs. Carrie Weeks.

Miss Leona Tabold has returned from a visit with friends in Shamokin, Pa., where she spent three weeks.

IMES SERVICE PATTERN 1393

1393. A practical, comfortable and stylish model.

Ladies' Maternity Dress with stay, and with sleeve in wrist or elbow length.

Taffeta in a new shade of green was used for this design, with chamois lace for trimming. The lines are simple, and becoming, and the stay is a practical feature, since it provides for widening the garment, without making alterations at the waistline. The pattern is good for serge, voile, faille, repp, gabardine, for linen, tub silk, gingham, chambray, corduroy or pique. It is cut in 7 sizes: 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46 inches bust measure, and requires 6 1/2 yards of 44-inch material for a 36-inch size. The skirt measures 5 1/4 yards at the lower edge.

A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 10c in silver or stamps.

Orders for patterns are forwarded to New York to be filled, hence it requires several days for the pattern to reach the purchaser. Patterns can not be ordered by telephone. Do not use postage stamps for larger denomination than two cents.

CAUTION—Order adult patterns by number of pattern, giving bust measure for waist patterns, and waist measure for skirt patterns. For Misses and Children give number of pattern and age only.

Splendid Attraction At The Lyric Next Week

"The Goddess" Chapter Number 11, will be shown Monday, a chapter of great interest. This wonderful story is nearing the end now and every inch of the few remaining chapters will be interesting.

Maud Allan, ranking with her bosom friend, Pavlova, as one of the two greatest dancers in the world, will be seen Tuesday at the Lyric as the star of a specially elaborate picture production, "The Rugmaker's Daughter," presented on the Paramount Program by the "Boo-worth" company. The story is Oriental, a beautiful conception that will thrill and fascinate you all the way. This is Maud Allan's first appearance on the screen, and the film has proved a decided success everywhere. In the course of the story she introduces three of her famous dances.

Wednesday brings Myrtle Tanne.

Brennan Family Joins Portsmouth Boosters

As usual, Portsmouth has taken the lead! Nowhere, population considered, has there been such an unprecedented demand for the famous new preparation, Tanlac, than in this city. Already its boosters number in the hundreds and their ranks are constantly growing.

The latest arrivals among those who endorse the "Master Medicine" are the members of the Brennan family, who live at 419 Third street, where three daughters have experienced the surprisingly beneficial results for which Tanlac is so justly noted. In speaking of the effects of the medicine, Mrs. Daniel Brennan, mother of the girls, said:

"My youngest girl, Aurelia, had entered in a most severe form, in fact it affected her stomach, to such an extent that her food did not digest properly. Slight cold spells caused her great suffering from full head, coughs and colds, and her breath was nearly always bad. The first bottle of Tanlac we purchased did her so much good that we purchased two more.

"Aurelia has changed so wonderfully since then that Edna, another daughter, has started taking Tanlac to subdue stomach disorders. She has only taken three doses but can notice some improvement. Susan, also, has decided to try Tanlac—in fact it seems to have been adopted as our family medicine. We cannot say too much in praise of it—no wonder it's called the 'Master Medicine.'"

Tanlac, the premier preparation which has electrified the country by its remarkable restorative powers in cases of catarrh, stomach, liver and kidney disorders and rheumatic trouble, is sold exclusively in Portsmouth by the Fisher & Streich Pharmacy, 6th and Chillicothe streets, where the Tanlac Man is explaining it. It is sold, also, in Cincinnati at Dow's, 6th and Walnut streets.

series called "In The Name of The King" a 2 reel Gold Seal series Hassan featured with a big cast of Universal players.

"When Hubby Grew Jealous," a Nostalgic comedy with Billie Rhodes and Neal Burns. "Lady Audley's Secret," a Superba comedy by Charles De Forrest, the funny man of the films, as chief actor. On program will end up with Charlie Chaplin in one of his fastest comedies.

Charlie Chaplin at The Scenic
Tonight the Scenic has another of its great double feature programs headed by Charlie Chaplin, the world's greatest comedian, in one of his latest two reel comedies, entitled "Work." You'll laugh, you'll scream, you'll roar at Chaplin's funny antics as a paper hanger in this big two reel serial. The other feature is Edison's three act drama, "For Proper Place" with Marc MacDermott and Miriam Nesbitt featured. It is a powerful dramatic feature that will hold your interest to the very end. If you miss this great double feature program tonight you'll miss your one best bet.

At Temple Theatre
Tonight's program is entitled "The Honor of a District Attorney." It's a heart-grIPPING story of a judge who sacrificed love to justice, an American production, featuring Vivian Rich, Louise Lester and Jack Richardson. The third and fourth is a Keystone comedy entitled "Dirty Work in a Laundry," featuring Ford Sterling.

Don't overlook this wonderful program for each day of next week at the Columbia, as it includes the very cream of American film productions.

At The Exhibit
"The Murderer" is the big Fox production that will appear at the Exhibit tonight. William Parum is playing the leading role in this five reel masterpiece. The admission will be only ten cents. Shows started at 10:30 this morning and will continue throughout the afternoon and evening.

At The Majestic
"Can Love Grow Cold Be Revived?" is the title of a single reel picture that is being shown at the Majestic theatre tonight. It is one of the Dudley series and Harry Kelley is taking the leading role.

"The Haunting Eyes" is the two reel dramatic feature that is heading the bill at the Majestic. Fred Church and Lillian Hamilton are taking the leading roles in this picture.

Strand Theatre
The fifth big adventure in the remarkable "Under the Crescent"

THEATRICAL

SUN OPENS MONDAY

Fresh from the hands of the decorators, painters and cleaners the Sun theatre can be aptly called the "Theatre Beautiful" and will open its doors for the season of 1915-16 commencing Monday matinee, August 30, presenting a vaudeville program of excellence and one that cannot help but please the most critical. The entire house has been decorated in a pleasing combination of tan and green and with the aid of three hundred and fifty tungsten lamps the theatre is even prettier than when it opened is the opinion of many who have already "peeped." Heading the bill for the first half of the week is the well known Knight Trio of harmony singers. This is a high class act in every respect and one that has been a hit on every bill they have appeared and they come to Portsmouth direct from a successful engagement in a leading Chicago theatre. Next comes the Omega Trio in a twenty-minute comedy that abounds with "funnisms." McAvoy and Brooks are a team of comedians and singers with a whole bunch of the kind of stuff you will like. Kramer and Patterson are novelty acrobats and with two good reels of pictures is going to make a mighty good hour and a half of entertainment. This program will be presented the first half of the week and on Thursday will be shown an entire change of program.

WILL TRY TO RAISE F-4

Washington, Aug. 28.—Rear Admiral Boush reported from Honolulu today that two pontoons specially constructed to raise the submarine F-4, which sank several months ago had been placed over the submarine and six chains passed under the wreck. It is expected the bulk will be brought to the surface without further delay.

WOMAN LOSES FIVE SONS IN BATTLES

Berlin, Aug. 28.—The colonel of a regiment stationed in the West issues an appeal for assistance to a mother who had suffered terribly through the war. Her nine sons and a son-in-law went to the front. Five of the sons are dead and three of them and the son-in-law are severely wounded.

GERMAN DEBT WILL BE $625,000,000

Amsterdam, Aug. 28.—(Via London)—The Berlin Vorwaerts in discussing the new German war loan directs attention to what it characterizes as the alarming financial situation which Germany must face at the conclusion of the war.

"After the war," says the paper, "The Imperial debt and pensions alone will demand an annual expenditure of at least two and a half billion marks, ($625,000,000) or a little less than the united ordinary and extraordinary Imperial expenditure for 1912. In other words, the income of the empire hitherto will only suffice to pay the interest on the national debt. For all other expenses new sources of taxation must be created. Whoever remembers the taxation controversies of 1908 and 1909 can easily imagine into what international political difficulties is leading us."

GERMANY'S SYSTEM OF EDUCATION CAUSE OF WAR. HE SAYS

Oakland, Calif., Aug. 28.—That Germany was the victim of a wrong system of education was the declaration made by John Mez, of Munich, Germany, at the closing session here last night of the National Education Association. "Internationalism," was the subject of his address.

He said in part:

"Those in my country who made war did not mean to destroy. They are the victims of a wrong system of education. They have been taught nothing beyond an irrational conception of militarism."

"Everyone who lives in the United States and loves civilization and humanity should be grateful to the man who has kept America out of the war."

"Education in internationalism," he continued, "Means educating the old men first to change the idea that collective homicide is the proper thing."

"The first duty of a man is to defend his country but not to attack any other country."

"The most gratifying sight in the world is the spectacle of the college presidents of the country talking peace for education is the one great agency which will wipe out the stupidity of militarism."

David Baneroff Johnson, president of the Winthrop Normal and Industrial School, Rock Hill, S. C., the new president of the National Education Association reviewed the history of the organization and declared that the convention was the greatest in its record.

Says Willis Isn't In License Fight

Columbus, Aug. 28.—That a false impression has gone abroad in regard to the referendum which is being sought in connection with the McDermott Liquor License Law and that no appointment of Governor Willis or the State Liquor License Commission is involved in the fight on the McDermott law was the substance of a statement issued today, by Judge Frank H. Kerr, of Steubenville, in charge of the referendum headquarters here.

Judge Kerr said that his call upon Governor Willis just prior to the inauguration of the referendum movement was a purely social nature and that at that time he did not even see the governor. His only conference with members of the state license commission he said was in relation to a matter in which he was interested in the capacity of attorney for a Jefferson county client. Judge Kerr asserted that he does not know who is behind the referendum movement further than that he was solicited by friends in his part of the state to take charge of the headquarters and that he consented to do so as a result of their urgent appeals.

All In Bridgeport To Be Working Soon

Bridgeport, Conn., Aug. 28.—With industrial conditions improving rapidly and several thousand striking employees of plants ready to resume their labors Monday under the eight hour day and better shop conditions, factory toilers were in a jubilant mood today.

It was predicted that next week would see but few idle persons in Bridgeport. The labor leaders are expected to transfer their activities to other Connecticut cities where preliminary efforts are being directed toward building up local unions of various crafts. In the absence of Walter C. Bryant, head of the Bryant Electric Company, the strike of 1,500 employees there was not definitely ended today but the men expected to return Tuesday. It is understood that the only obstacle is a declaration to recognize the union.

Eight hundred girls of the Crown and George C. Dacheher Corset Company, will return Monday, having won every point raised, including abolition of the fine system.

Japan Sends Cruisers To Seek Germans

Tokio, Aug. 28.—Owing to persistent reports that armed German merchantmen have been sighted in the South Seas, the Japanese navy has dispatched several fast cruisers to search the waters of the Southern Pacific. Advice from Australia placed one of these Germans in the Eastern Pacific in the neighborhood of the entrance to the Panama Canal where she was supposed to be waiting to prey upon merchantmen of the Allies.

Rear Admiral Suzuki, vice minister of marines, explains the dispatch of warships, as a measure of precaution. As a matter of fact, he said the navy scarcely credited the reports, but wanted to make certain that shipping was safe in the Orient. About fifty German vessels were tied up in various neutral ports in the South Seas. If properly armed, at least thirty of them could do active service as volunteer warships. It was just possible that one or two had escaped.

Say Teuton Losses Surpass Imagination

Dvinsk, Russia, Aug. 28. (Via London)—Wounded members of the former garrison of the fortress of Ossowetz, recently evacuated by the Russians, in hospitals here, assert the German losses before that fortress surpass imagination. German prisoners are represented as declaring that of the attacking forces declared that the fortress had cost them five times more men than were in the garrison.

"The Germans," it is asserted, "stormed the fortress almost totally, expending altogether more than 2,000,000 shells."

Bury Fire Victims At Home Sunday

San Francisco, Aug. 28.—Friends of Brigadier General John Pershing, whose wife and three children perished in a fire at the Presidio military reservation here yesterday, completed arrangements today to have the bodies shipped to Cheyenne, Wyoming, tomorrow for burial. Cheyenne is the home of Mrs. Pershing's father, United States Senator Francis E. Warren. General Pershing will meet the funeral party in Oakland, as his friends don't want him to view the blackened ruins of his former home.

Mrs. Pershing was a popular matron and the tragedy has plunged the reservation into mourning. General Pershing will arrive tomorrow morning from El Paso.

Pan-Americans W. II Discuss Mexico Again

Washington, Aug. 28.—Further consideration of the Mexican problem will be undertaken by the Pan-American conference in the near future. A meeting of the Latin-American conferees with Secretary Lansing has not been definitely arranged but a conference likely will be held late next week it was said today by state department officials.

By that time all replies to the peace conference appeal that are expected will have been received including the response of General Carranza.

It is believed General Carranza will urge recognition of his government. C. A. Douglass, counsel for General Carranza in Washington today received the following telegram from General Pablo Gonzalez, general in chief, in command at Mexico City under date of August 26:

"I have the pleasure of informing you that the general situation is improving daily. The hunger problem is almost solved and with reference to railroad traffic so soon as this is resumed with the north which will be accomplished in three or four days, the aspect of the country will have changed favorably."

Wants War Stories Told Over Grave

Paris, Aug. 28.—A French soldier fighting in the Argonne, has just inherited an estate valued at $40,000 from an eccentric retired army officer who lived in the soldier's native village. The only condition attached to the legacy is that the soldier must from time to time visit the grave of his benefactor and relate there some of his war experiences. The will says:

"Being without family, I leave the whole of my fortune to Paul Cambon, farmer. I desire thus to show my gratitude to him for having for many years listened patiently and with every air of interest to the stories I used to tell of the war of 1870. I trust that he will be spared to return to his village after the present war, and my only request to him is that he comes occasionally to my tomb and there relate some of his own war experiences."

Temperance Union Case Is Argued

Columbus, Aug. 28.—The protest of the Ohio Temperance Union against the action of the state board of agriculture in refusing to allow the temperance union the use of a booth during the state fair was being heard today.

The exclusion of the temperance union was taken at the instance of the anti-saloon league and other organizations which alleged that the title of the temperance league was misleading and that it was secretly in alliance with the "wets."

Harry R. Probasco, of Cincinnati, led the fight against the board of agriculture for the modification of the order of the board that would permit the temperance union to maintain a booth for carrying on its propaganda.

RUSSIAN PEASANTS BEG NEWSPAPERS

Petrograd, Aug. 28.—"So intense is the interest in the war among the Russian peasants," says a writer in the Novoe Vremya, "that every train stopping at a wayside station is besieged by peasants of both sexes and all ages stretching their hands to the passengers and crying 'Give us a paper.'"

"Before the war the Russian peasant looked upon a newspaper as material for rolling up a cigarette. Now he reads it from beginning to end. Every bit of an old newspaper is received as a crust of bread by a starving beggar."

WASHBURN WINS

Southampton, N. Y., Aug. 28.—Watson M. Washburn of Harvard defeated Theodore Roosevelt Pell of New York in the finals today for the Meadow Club Tennis cup.

RESUME HOSTILITIES

Paris, Aug. 28.—Resumption of hostilities between the Austrians and Montenegrins is announced in an official statement given out here today by the Montenegrin consul general. "A lively engagement occurred yesterday near the month of the field of Carrara (in Dalmatia near the Montenegrin border) between our posts and rather strong detachments of Austrians. The fight lasted two hours. The Austrians retired, leaving numerous dead on the field. Ten prisoners remained in our hands. King Nicholas has gone to the front."

Cincinnati, August 28. The official heads of 30 employees of the Internal Revenue service were removed today by Collector Gilligan. An order was received by him from assistant secretary of the treasury William P. Mather ordering the "dismissal, without prejudice," of the 30 men, and the letters accompanying the order were delivered to the men to whom they were addressed. The action was taken upon recommendation of Internal Revenue Commissioner Osborne who approved the suggestion of Mr. Gilligan to reduce the force of gaugers, storekeepers and storekeeper-gaugers.

The dismissal of these men, many of whom have been in the service for years, and all under civil service was made necessary through the elimination of federal representation in the rectifying plants.

Local German's View Of European War

(Written by Louis F. Korth, former Editor of The Correspondent.)

Friday, August 27, 1915.

The campaign in Poland in its early stage has taken on the character of an immense drive to force the Russians into the interior and Grand Duke Nicolaievitch off his second line to a third one (God knows where).

Both of his flank detachments, Kovno and Brest-Litovsk, he has had to give up and the center has been made untenable so that we will hear of the evacuation of Grodno and Bielestock as soon as the general retreat begins, very likely behind the natural defenses of the Pripiet Rokitno and Pinsk swamps and marshes, which form a natural barrier, if the German-Austrians will give the grand duke the chance to get there. London hears from Petersburg that Bielestock is being evacuated.

Brest was taken by the Mackensen army group, the victors of Tarnob, the Dunajec, Przemyśl, Lemberg and Warsaw. A few days ago Mackensen broke the grand duke's southwestern front along the Bug by storming the heights of Kopitow. Turning north he got into the outer works of the fortress and drove the Russians into the inner ring, which they evacuated after a show of defense, being flanked out in all directions but the east and in great danger of being cut off from their communications by their rear and their line of retreat.

Archduke Joseph Ferdinand after storming the bridgehead at Razna and crossing the Bug closed in on the fortress from the north and east and with Mackensen entered the works.

General Gallwitz and General Schell advancing along the Narw occupied Bielsk and cut the grand duke off from Bielestock, while Prince Leopold routed him at Klecsche, just south of Bielsk, and drove his center into the big Bielowitch forests.

The ring was closed and to poor Nicolas nothing is left but retreat. He will not risk the fate of Biazine at Metz.

Brest was the strongest Russian fortress and as the pivot of its western defenses the most important one.

On the Niemen front between Kovno and Grodno in the northern section of the line the Russians are straining every nerve to keep their rear communications intact for retreat, while General Eichenhorn's troops are pressing them hard. They were forced to give up Ossowicz, the strong fortress in the Bobre swamps, which they have held against Hindenburg's onslaughts last winter and ever since. General Von Faleke has occupied Ossowicz. It covered the road to Bielestock on the Warsaw-Wilna main line.

Eichenhorn has taken Olita and is within sight of Grodno, whose fall may now be expected, which will give him control of the important Kovno-Grodno-Wilna triangle.

General Boehm-Vernally has cut off the grand duke from his left wing in Eastern Galicia, splitting his army in two, by taking Kovel, junction of the two big roads from Brest to Kieff, south-east, and to Odessa south, and invested Lutsk and Rovno.

German and Hungarian cavalry corps are on the big pike from Kovel to Kobrin, east of Brest on the western outskirts of the Pripiet swamps through which the grand duke's line of retreat is running. They have forced a Russian column into the swamps.

Petrograd informs us that Von Below has driven the Russians over the Sventy (Kurland) and at the railroad north of Wilna.

The matchless strategy of the German-Austrian general staff and the perfect tactics of its detachments have given us many surprises. And more are to come.

The crushing of the Russian resistance has gone on with such rapidity that the disintegration of the Czar's once mighty army, must soon be complete.

The capture of the big Narw fortress Georgiewsk is considered of as much importance in Berlin as that of Warsaw in a military sense, as it sets a couple of army corps free for other operations which would have been required for the siege.

The London reports about the capture were deceiving. They led to believe that of the garrison of 25,000 only 21,000 surrendered and 4,000 escaped, but the report of the German general staff is definite on this point. It says: "More than 85,000 Russians were taken, among them six generals. Troops of General Gallwitz captured 3,650 prisoners and 12 machine guns on the same day."

While Warsaw was taken by Paderewski and Kovno by Westphalen the credit for the last successful assault on the fortress of Gorkievsk falls to the Saxons, led by General Von Beseler, the son of Antwerp.

70 guns were found in Citadel and forts, mostly of modern type. The Russians had accumulated material and stores for a year in the fortress and the command had orders to hold it at all hazards but the German artillery proved as effective in Poland as it did in Belgium. No attempt was made to save the stores and the bridge over the river broke down under the heavy guns. The Vistula is now open to the Germans for traffic and war transports all along its course.

At Kovno the Germans captured over 60 guns.

The capitals of the Entente Allies are jubilant over a great naval victory of the Russians at Riga. That is what London blunked on Sunday last on the authority of the president of the Russian Duma who had announced that in a naval battle between the Russians and the Germans in the Gulf of Riga a German battleship, three cruisers and seven destroyers had been sent to the bottom.

The German admiral says of the battle: "Our Baltic squadron has forced the gulf after removing the mines. In the outpost engagements we sunk a Russian torpedo boat of the A class. On their retreat the Russians lost the Novik. Several of their vessels were badly damaged. On August 19, (during the battle in the Sound) two Russian gunboats were sunk by our artillery. Three of our torpedo boats were damaged, one so badly that it sank."

On the day after the battle Petrograd cabled: "An official announcement says: Our warships which protected the entrance to the gulf have withdrawn into the bay, as the German fleet is far stronger than ours."

Both reports, the Russian and the German, render it evident that the German fleet entered the gulf, which was the object.

The German admiral announces that a Russian auxiliary cruiser was sunk by a German submarine at the mouth of the Gulf of Finland.

Italy has declared war on Turkey and sent a fleet as well as an army to the Dardanelles. Three months ago Cadorna was on the march into Trieste and Vienna, by his bulletins, today the troops he so badly needs on the Isonzo are on the way to Turkey to do what the British and French could not accomplish.

Germany so far has not declared war on Italy although she has broken off diplomatic relations, but the chancellor a few days ago declared in parliament: "Even if fighting for life on two fronts we have strong armies left to fight on a third one." If Germany should throw them into Tyrol General Cadorna's protest against sending troops out of the country and weakening his forces for home defense still more than they have been through unsuccessful battles will not be laughed at in Rome as it was yesterday.

The week's reports of the Austrian war office about affairs on the Austro-Italian frontier do not vary any from those since May. New attacks of the Italians on the Isonzo front and elsewhere with the same negative results. Cadorna has quit publishing bulletins.

From Lugano comes a report that the Italians have got to Trent.

London says under date August 24: "An official report about the newest operations on the Gallipoli peninsula, published yesterday, flatly contradicts the story, that the British troops had flanked the Turks and cut them off from their base of operations. The object of the new landing has not been effected. At the beginning of the month the Australians took important positions on the west coast of the peninsula (Anafarta) but had to give them up again, as the new troops landed at Suda Bay could not advance. (They were driven back by the Turks as reported.)"

The Turkish war office announced on August 22: "The enemy made an attack from his new front near Anafarta on the peninsula but was repulsed with very heavy loss."

Anafarta is the bay on the northwestern promontory of the peninsula, where the Colonials recently landed and gained a new foothold.

Constantinople was bombarded by a Russian aero flotilla. 41 persons were killed or wounded.

Nothing of importance from the west front, nothing but the usual trench fighting, lately for Schratzmuennle-Kopf, the head of the light which with the Linkekopf and the Barrenkopf commands the Focht valley from Alsace Muenster to Colmar.

Around Arras the Germans claim successes on the road from Lille to Lens which the French don't concede.

To meet an expected big new drive into Alsace-Lorraine and the Rhine Valley of which the Paris and London papers have been speaking lately, the Germans have strengthened all the garrisons there and built two new strategic roads centering at Strassburg.

Alsace would not welcome such an invasion. It is loyal to the empire and has suffered much in the two previous ones.

The British fleet made a demonstration at Zeebrugge and Knaake on the Belgian coast, where the Germans have a submarine base. Official Berlin states that it consisted of some forty ships, which fired upon town and works, but were driven off by the coast batteries. This is the first we have heard of the British fleet again in the North Sea since the January battle.

Sixty-two air crafts of all descriptions from the big French aviation camp at Nancy, the biggest air unit sent out yet, bombarded the German munition works at Dillingen near Angsburg, dropping 150 bombs, 30 of high explosive power, and the railroad station at Offenbach, Baden. German aviators returned the call and shelled the French air base at Nancy and destroyed four French air raiders in the Saar valley.

In consequence of the surplus of breadstuffs, warranted by the new abundant crops, the German imperial government has decreed that, beginning with September 1, both the quantity and the quality of bread rations are to be raised.

A Swedish company plans to buy the interned Hamburg and Bremen liners for service between New York and Europe.

By the export figures of the U. S. department of commerce during the twelve months ending on July 1, explosives were shipped to the allies belligerents to the value of $41,467,168.

The Frankfurter Zeitung states:

that Germany and Austria harbor about two millions of prisoners of war, among them over 1,600,000 Russians.

Prices of victuals in Germany have increased on the average by fifty per cent since the beginning of the war, some have doubled, but a fall is expected as soon as the new crops are in. Most working people would not be able to keep up if it were not for a corresponding increase in wages and a greater demand for labor. The drones are dead. In every family everybody is doing something to increase the income. The men in war are largely replaced by women at home.

Chicago papers say that the Pullman Co. has refused a Russian order of 60 millions because it was to be paid for in treasury notes, not in gold.

The third German war loan of 10,000 million marks, $2,500,000,000, was granted unanimously by the Reichstag.

H. W. Zimmerman, who has been American Consul in Rostow, Russia, in an Associated Press interview states that in official Petersburg circles there is more fear of revolution than of war.

In the financial committee of the Russian Duma Prof. Osaro, representing the minister of finance, made the startling announcement that neither in Paris nor London could Russia place a loan, it would have to go to America and pay for its war purchases with paper.

Russia as well as France are undergoing a political crisis. Coalition (non-partisan) cabinets are to be found.

The Turkish consul general in New York designates the stories about Christian massacres in Armenia as base inventions.

"Talk about militarism and the Kaiser's war machine. The German army is the most democratic institution existent. Aristocrat and pauper know only one duty, the duty to fatherland. They sleep in the same dirt in the trenches, they eat out of the same pot," Batavia, N. Y., Times.

The influential London Economist says: "England needs another Pitt who will tell the people the truth about the war."

In the Ukase of the Czar, which calls the recruits of 1916 to the colors, a year before the time, it noted that all usual exemptions are cancelled. This proves that Russia has got to the bottom of her inexhaustible resources in men and material. The Ukase is published by the Russian embassy in Paris.

The Bulgarian government has published its new treaty with Turkey about the railroad and territorial concessions made by the latter.

Vonzeles and King Constantin are agreed that neutrality is the best policy for Greece at present.

"By Italy joining the triple entente Greece has been forced out of it," Embros says. Roumania is yet on the fence. After the hope of reuniting the nations of the defunct Balkan league for their purposes has vanished the Allies have turned to Japan again but the wily Jap shuns the fire. Of course he will sell his old Russian friend all the munition he can pay for (in gold) but he'll not sing with him: "Rise, Crown With Light Imperial Salem" (the Russian hymn) for the light has gone out. His tune is "Asia for the Asiatics," and Germany is out of Asia. Why should he invite her back to Kian-chen by helping Russia to lick her?

Cotton is king no more but a subject of the British king who has laid him in war contraband chains. In 1861 it was held that John Bull and King Cotton had a great deal to do with the war of that time. Now John and the cotton states have parted friendship.

WHITE LILY COUNCIL D. OF A. CELEBRATES ANNIVERSARY

Elaborate ceremonies marked the eleventh anniversary celebration of White Lily Council, No. 81, Daughters of America, held Friday evening in the I. O. O. F. hall, Fifth and Court streets. A large number of the members were present and enjoyed the splendid program. Rebecca Kidd and Martha Akers were initiated. At the conclusion of the program a light buffet luncheon was served.

White Lily Council No. 81 was founded August 26, 1904, the charter containing thirty-seven names. The membership of the order is now 235 and before the first of the year is expected to be increased to 300.

"Loyalty, Love and Patriotism" is the motto of the order.

The opening number on the program was a piano solo by Miss Davidson, which was followed by a duet by Cora Ray and Lillie Hester. Charabel Dixon rendered a piano solo and Miss Esta Dixon sang a solo in a very pleasing manner.

"Our Order" was the subject of the address made by Mrs. Mary E. Boyles, past state councillor. The address was exceptionally good and Mrs. Boyles was complimented for her fine work. Following the address were two solos rendered by Goldie James and Frank H. Schmidt. Irwin Bowser, one of the live wires of the order, made a splendid talk on "Our Orphan's Home."

The following committee, Frank H. Schmidt, P. W. Quickel, Cora Ray, Lydia Hornbuckle and Mrs. Margaret Anderson were thanked for the splendid program.

Miss Mary Darlington, district deputy from Gallipoli, was unable to be present at the celebration.

At the meeting next Friday night Mrs. Anna Riddle and Mrs. Bertha Boyles, delegates, who are attending the state convention at Tiffin, O., will make their reports on the big meeting.

OLD CHARGE RENEWED

An affidavit which was filed last May against Charles Wishon a wagon driver, by Caroline Alshire charging him with the theft of $19 will be heard in mayor's court tonight. It is claimed that Wishon took the money while doing some work for the plaintiff and immediately skipped out. When he returned to the city recently, Mrs. Alshire asked that the affidavit be served.

GERMANY DENIES SUBMARINE SINKING

Berlin, Aug. 28.—(Via London)—

The admiralty today made denial of the official British statement that a German submarine had been sunk this week by a British aviator off the Belgian coast near Ostend. The admiralty also made a report on the attack on August 18 by a German submarine on the English coast.

The announcement is as follows: "One of our submarines on August 16 destroyed by gun fire the Benzol factory with the attached Benzol warehouses and coke furnaces near Harrington, England. The statement of the British press that the submarine attacked the open towns of Harrington, Parion and White Haven is incorrect.

"The same submarine on August 17 was fired at from a great distance, in the Irish sea, by a large passenger steamer, probably a royal mail steam packet, but was not hit."

"The British admiralty announced on August 27 that a German submarine had been destroyed and sunk off Ostend by British seaplanes. This is incorrect. The submarine was attacked, but not hit, and returned to port undamaged."

"The British statement referred by German admiralty was made on August 26. It stated that squadron commander Arthur Bigsworth had destroyed, single-handed, a German submarine off Ostend. The announcement contained these words: "The submarine was observed to be completely wrecked and sunk off Ostend."

Edwardsville, Ills., Aug. 28.—"I have read with great care the history of all the European countries for the last 100 years and I have read all the state documents issued in connection with the present war but I confess that I don't know why this war is being fought," declared Vice President Marshall in an address here last night.

Speaking of immigrants Mr. Marshall said: "I believe in inviting the foreigners of all nations to come to the United States. If a man cannot concentrate on the needs of the United States and take his mind off the country from which he came, that man should go back immediately. The recruiting offices are always open in London, Paris and Berlin."

Marshall Cannot Learn Wars' Cause

Edwardsville, Ills., Aug. 28.—"I have read with great care the history of all the European countries for the last 100 years and I have read all the state documents issued in connection with the present war but I confess that I don't know why this war is being fought," declared Vice President Marshall in an address here last night.

Union Depot Firms To Pay High Taxes

Columbus, Aug. 28.—Union depot companies and messenger and signal companies will have to pay taxes this year on valuations more than half a million dollars above those of last year. The state tax commission in a report issued today gives figures which show that the total valuations of the two classes of companies have been raised $653,720 since 1914.

Union depot companies in the state are worth $3,665,720 this year according to the tax commission's estimates, while in 1914 they were assessed for taxation on a total value of $3,275,540, an increase for 1915 of $390,180. For messenger and signal companies the 1915 valuations fixed by the commission totals $576,140 compared to $312,600 in 1914, an increase of $263,540.

Home Of Character No. 203

This double residence (41x55 feet) occupies a corner lot and has been designed to keep an effect of unity in the general mass and to do away with the general stereotyped design usually found in investment properties. So far as expense is concerned it has been no greater than though the home had been built without the aid of architect's plans, while the effect has been gratifying not only to the owner and his tenants, but to property owners in the immediate neighborhood.

The investment has been enhanced by virtue of the fact that the renting public is drawn by a well designed structure, a fact which has been many times proven where the ordinary "For Rent" house is passed by at a low figure for one renting for considerably more money by reason of possessing style and character.

The first floor plan provides for both houses really facing the same street, while the dining room and living room of each house are on the front. The living room of the rear house is favored with a front exposure, and a side street exposure as well, as also the porch for this rear house. Note that each house has all the features of any well designed home, having access to the kitchen and the living rooms, ice rooms, kitchen porches, and each separated in a way that neither will become a nuisance to the other. A fire wall separates the two houses on both the first and second floor so that the insurance risk is minimized. Each house has three bedrooms upon the second floor. Bath rooms are off the halls and each house has a second floor balcony or porch. The halls are very small and stairs extend off of the same to attics which are also divided by a fire wall. An elegant "Home of Character" and one which will wonderfully assist the investor in covering the expense of various items in the upkeep of the home.

$5000 should cover the cost of this home, if built of inexpensive materials, while $7500 would be invested in it to advantage where the locality and rents would warrant the highest grade of equipment and finish.

Mr. John Henry Newson Will Personally Answer any inquiries concerning "Home of Character" No. 203 from Times readers. Address your inquiry to HOME OF CHARACTER DEPARTMENT, The Times. Inquiries concerning other designs appearing on this page will also be given Mr. Newson's personal attention.

Cheer Up; Once They Had Ice And Snow In Summer

The following article on a cold summer is contained in the Herald and Presbyter received by Miss Mary J. Davis, 224 Washington street.

"This is a cool summer, but nothing compared with the summer of 1816. A writer in The Evangelical Messenger says that the summer of 1816 may be characterized as the coldest ever known in this country."

"January was so mild that the fires in the houses were allowed to go out except when used for cooking. There were a few cool days, but not one that was wintry. February followed suit, and was not cold. The farmers in New England and New York plowed, and although there were some days colder than in the preceding month, the weather was about the same. When March came in it promised to maintain its reputation, and from the first to the sixth there was a spell of frigidly and storm that gave the month its lion-like character. After that the month was windy, but not as cold as March should be."

"April came with a promise of an early spring, but as the days grew longer the snowstorms came and the ice and snow abounded, so that by the first of May there was a wintry temperature. When the last of May came, instead of full foliage on the trees and plentiful flowers, everything was killed by the frost."

"June was the coldest month of roses ever experienced in this latitude. Frost and ice were as common as buttercups and daisies generally are. Frost after frost destroyed vegetation. All fruit was ruined. In Vermont the snow fell to a depth of ten inches, and in Maine there was a snowfall of nearly the same depth. In Massachusetts, Connecticut and New York there were storms which left three inches on the ground. There were only a few days that were moderate in their warmth. Everybody looked, longed and waited for warm weather, but it did not come, and overcoats and heavy wraps were not hung away. Planting and shivering were done together, and, when Saturdays came, the foot stoves were taken to the meeting houses under the buffalo robes."

July came in with frost and snow. On the glorious Fourth ice as thick as window glass formed throughout New England, New York and some parts of Pennsylvania. Much of the vegetation in the approved manner, and that had managed to struggle through May and June gave up the effort, froze and died. To the surprise of all, August proved wintry, and in Europe there were also frosts and cold storms. At Barnet, thirty miles from London, there was an "intense" snow storm on August 30th. In this country there was little fruit, small crops of grain and vegetables, and much privation.

September saw this surprising year resume its natural condition. That month, with the two succeeding, were much the same as those of the ordinary autumn season. In December winter set in, and in the approved manner, and 1817 found things back in their normal order."

Fr. McGuirk Friend Of Bishop Who Was Wounded By Priest

The Rev. J. E. McGuirk, pastor of the Holy Redeemer church, was much grieved by the news of the tragic shooting of Rt. Rev. Patrick R. Hefferson, bishop of the Winona Roman Catholic Diocese of Winona, Minn., who was seriously wounded by Rev. A. L. Lesches, a priest for whom the bishop had refused to secure an appointment.

While returning from his trip to the coast Father McGuirk and two sisters, Mrs. Jean Kelley and Miss Martha McGuirk, spent two days with Bishop Hefferson. "I was dumbfounded when I learned that the bishop had been shot," said Father McGuirk, Saturday, "and I sincerely hope that he recovers." Father McGuirk stated Saturday that citizens of Winona and members of Bishop Hefferson's congregation recently presented him with 175 acres of land, the mansion in which he lived and gave him an automobile valued at $5,000, which placed the esteem in which he was held by his congregation and fellow townsmen in concrete form.

NAILER CRAFT GOES DOWN AFTER HEAVY BOMBARDMENT

Pilot Reams Is Knocked Off Bridge; Score Was 9 To 3

ALL that Pitcher Jimmy Reams had when he stalked to the mound Friday to do the flipping act for the Nailers against Portsmouth in the final clash of the season of these two teams was a soiled "unic" and a package of soap. He had nothing on the ball and before the curtain was rung down on the pastime staged on a drab and dreary old day the Nailers had been rammed from all sides and the Ironton ship had gone down, being torpedoed nine times while the Good Ship Spencer was hit only three times by hostile shells. The score indicated the playing strength of the two teams.

Grabbing a flying start in the way of a pair of tallies in the opening frame, Ironton held the lead but a short time as Portsmouth began playing Home Sweet Home on Reams' curves and when they got through in the eighth the score of the little blue book had been played completely through and Reams was ready for the cooling shower. The home boys just knocked the bow out from under his fiddle and stole his "G" string. That's all there was to it.

So far as the ball game was concerned the Travelers were outclassed. The Never Homes floundered around hopelessly and were glad when the third act was over so they could return to the hotel, throw off their unities and tell about the days when they had a home and how they played the game in Ironton, years and years ago. Hain felt during most of the game, only a few fans were present and Umpire Pfirman had all the pepper. Gee, but it was a funny old game at that. Lots of hard hitting, scoring and a few good plays, but the fans refused to fall for the fancy stuff. They failed to root. They took a peep at the raindrops, became afflicted with melancholia and began figuring out the easiest way to shuffle off. When the last men were interred and the trenches were cleared of the dead and wounded the fans fled dejectedly out of the park, rain bespattered and wondered what it was all about.

Well Ironton made two at the get-away. Ollom doubled and Stadfelt, Taylor and Harding singled. Yes, Jacobus was pitching. They all get it. Ironton's only other marker came in the third and was garnered when Brown doubled, Calbert singled and Taylor duplicated the one base run produced by Calbert. That ended the Ironton scoring. Jacobus was found for hits, but he kept the visitors away from Johnsonville.

Portsmouth scored three in the second on hits by Dills, McHenry a pass to Jacobus and a Hancock blow. A brace of three was scored in the third on Johnson, Catton, Spencer and Jacobus blows.

Two hits by Spencer and Jacobus brought one in the fifth, Dills and Johnson raps scored one in the sixth and tally No. 6 was produced in the seventh when Catton doubled, McHenry singled and Spencer sent a sacrifice fly to Harding. The game silently told in figures:

CHARLIE WEINERT OF NEW JERSEY, CHILD HEAVY WONDER, WANTS TO BE WORLD'S CHAMPION BEFORE HE CAN VOTE

Charlie Weinert, the boy heavyweight of Newark, N. J., declares that he's going to own the heavyweight crown before he is of age. Weinert is still in his teens and he has one of the most impressive records among the heavies. He has licked Jim Coffey, Gus Smith and most of them, and is now laying plans to clinch a match with Willard and then hurry for the belt.

ROTH EXPECTED TO LAND REGULAR JOI

Bobby Roth.

Bobby Roth, a newcomer in American league ranks, is expected to land a regular berth in the outfield of the Cleveland Indians. Both is one of the men secured by the Indians from the White Sox in the recent deal which took Joe Jackson to the Chicago American league club.

Local Lot Is Jonah To Reams

Jimmy Reams of the Ironton team has certainly found the going pretty rough out at Millbrook this season. With the exception of the first time he was sent in against the men of Spencer on May 25 when he beat the locals 5 to 3 after Tedrow had been knocked out, Reams has not won another game and has been batted all over the lot.

On June 22 the Nailers were beaten 6 to 1 and Portsmouth made 13 hits off Reams. On July 11 Reams again went down to defeat, 5 to 0, and the local team garnered eight hits off his slants. On July 21 Ironton lost to Portsmouth 12 to 4, and Reams was batted for 11 safe blows. On Friday August 27 with Reams in the box for the homeless Nailers his team lost 9 to 3. Small wonder that Reams heaved a sigh of relief when the last man was put out Friday. He will probably not have to pitch again in Millbrook this season. At least he sincerely hopes so.

Has Bad Ankle

Slow fielding on the part of Shortstop Brown of the Nailers gave Portsmouth batters four additional hits Friday. Brown fielded the balls cleanly but could not straighten up in time to make the plays to first as he is playing despite the fact that he has a badly sprained ankle.

Field Day At Bat

Outfielder Dills had a field day at the bat yesterday. He hit safely his first four times up and two of his wallpays were for extra bases. Dills has batted consistently all season and has acquired the delightful habit of pasting the pellet with the sacks tenanted.

Pennant Is Lapping Cubs In The Facelet

Mayville went a long ways toward clinching the second half pennant when the Burley Cubs beat Charleston 2 to 1. And Sims had been primed for this series and was given a five days rest. It doesn't pay to save them up, Biddy. One game is good as another. Josh has his team clicking along like a feathered rooster, we mean an alarm clock. Oh, what's the diff. They both get you up in the morning.

No Excess Baggage

The Nailers are traveling around with the least number of players than any league team in the country. Manager Taylor has but 11 men and usually ten of these are trotted out each day. The Irontonian bench was about as much depopulated yesterday as a theatre would be in Kansas in which a wet orator was making a speechlet.

Hahn's Big Week

"Riding the Good Old American Apple" is a little drama with a diamond flavor in which Eddy Hahn, a former fellow townsman starred in the past week. Leading off for Des Moines he shouldered the ash 36 times, cashed the pill safely 15 times, giving him the respectable average of .317. Here's a lad who is a blitzer by nature. He just can't keep from "poking" them safely.

CUT THE "RUFF" STUFF

Oscar DeLottelle, a member of the hurrying staff of the Ironton Nailers elicited the criticism of local fans Friday when he insisted on making remarks that were not becoming to a ball player, and did not add to the dignity of the game. His remarks were plainly heard in the grandstand and if he wants to maintain his excellent reputation as a ball player he will have to cut out the remarks he insisted on making Friday. Little sarcastic jibes are always enjoyed by the fans, but when words not heard on a diamond are spoken aloud a ball should be called.

Local Lot Is Jonah To Reams

Jimmy Reams of the Ironton team has certainly found the going pretty rough out at Millbrook this season. With the exception of the first time he was sent in against the men of Spencer on May 25 when he beat the locals 5 to 3 after Tedrow had been knocked out, Reams has not won another game and has been batted all over the lot.

On June 22 the Nailers were beaten 6 to 1 and Portsmouth made 13 hits off Reams. On July 11 Reams again went down to defeat, 5 to 0, and the local team garnered eight hits off his slants. On July 21 Ironton lost to Portsmouth 12 to 4, and Reams was batted for 11 safe blows. On Friday August 27 with Reams in the box for the homeless Nailers his team lost 9 to 3. Small wonder that Reams heaved a sigh of relief when the last man was put out Friday. He will probably not have to pitch again in Millbrook this season. At least he sincerely hopes so.

Claims Henderson Yielded One Blow

When is a clean hit not a hit? When it is made in Charleston. Umpire Pfirman is responsible for the statement that a clean hit was made off Pitcher Lawrence Henderson in the game he was credited with a no-hit game against Ironton. "Why, one of the Ironton club lined as clean a hit to left as any player ever secured and I was dumfounded when I saw that Official Scorer King had credited Henderson with a no-hit game," said Umpire Pfirman last night. "All the players admitted that one perfectly good hit was made off Henderson, who nevertheless pitched brilliant ball."

Hellup! Cobb Slumps

Tyrus Cobb, Detroit, suffered a batting slump in the last few days, but still leads in the American league. His average is .388. Other batters who follow the Georgian are:

	AB	R	H	PO	A	E
Speaker, Boston	300	40	100	33	0	0
Goetz, Boston	271	30	80	27	0	0

St. Louis	203	20	60	20	0	0
Lewis, Boston	202	20	60	20	0	0
Cobb leads in stolen bases with 33

Only Six Batters In The .300 Class

Chicago, Aug. 28.—The National league has only eight batters in the ".300" class, according to averages published here today. Snyder, of St. Louis, who took the lead away from Doyle of the first with an average of .353, Doyle is second with .334. Following are:

Luders, Philadelphia	313	40	100	33	0	0
Brooklyn	271	30	80	27	0	0
Philadelphia	212	20	60	20	0	0
Strunk, Philadelphia	212	20	60	20	0	0
St. Louis	203	20	60	20	0	0
Lewis, Boston	202	20	60	20	0	0

Doyle is the leading run getter with 62; Gravath, tops in error doing, with 19 homers.

The stolen base leaders remain with Carey, of Pittsburgh who has pilfered 29. Clement with 232 leads in club batters.

The leading pitchers are: Monahan, Pittsburgh, 19 wins and 6 losses; Alexander, Philadelphia, 21 and 8; Toney, Cincinnati 9 and 3; Pierce, Chicago, 10 and 4; Smith, Brooklyn 12 and 6; Ladd, Cincinnati 17 and 9; Coulbass, Brooklyn 17 and 7; Egan, Boston 15 and 9; Meadows, St. Louis 11 and 7; Bell, Brooklyn 12 and 8.

Our Sympathy, Fans From Chilly

Wonder what the weak-hearted, hard-to-shell-out fans of Paint Street, O., think of Josh Devore and his Reddings by this time. The fans of the old Metropols certainly permitted one grand little half club to ooze out of its midst when they failed to kick in two hits now and then at a game. The Burley Cubs have been playing an article of ball that would have brought pure undiluted joy to the dear little hearts of those deliciously sweet encasing kiddies of picturesque old Paint street. We are near to tears when we think of how their hearts are swell with sorrow when they take a peep at the Ohio State League standing and find Mayville browsing contentedly in pasture No. 1 of the Carr field. "Twice ever thus."

And Mayville does not prate about its dyed-in-the-wool fans, its intellectuality and white-trousered, rough-ed, cane manipulators either. No, nothin' doin'. It's just a small berg with a one-legged car line and a street light here and there but it is a game berg at that. We'll say so. Ohio State league hats are doffed to Mayville. She was a life-saver.

MAISEI-YANKEES

This lad has been putting up a wonderful game at the third corner for the Yankees this season and is pressing Ty Cobb closely for the base stealing honors of the American league.

Frankfort	10	0	0	0	0	0
Lexington	12	5	8	5	0	0

Batteries—Bacon, Jones and Muel; Lingel and Blackwell, Umpire—Kane.

PHIL FANS FEAR BOSTON BRAVES

Philadelphia fans are firmly convinced that the Boston Braves are the most dangerous bugbear—that the Brooklyns are a slipping fast and won't last much longer in high society. That five other clubs can do little except tear one another's percentages to ribbons, and that the Braves are the real terrors of the waning season. They argue that the Braves as they are now lined up are in the best fighting trim that the club has known all season; that Snodgrass is a slugging fast and won't last much longer in high society; that five other clubs can do little except tear one another's percentages to ribbons, and that the Braves are the real terrors of the waning season. ## The "Wonder Car"

All Low "First-Cost" Records Broken

The new 1916 Maxwell shatters all low "first-cost" records for a real automobile. Think of it—a full 5-passenger car—an absolutely complete car, with electric starter, electric lights, high-tension magneto, and every refinement—a luxurious car—a beautiful car—a powerful 50-mile-an-hour-car,—yet a light-weight real economy car—for $655

All Low "After-Cost" Records Broken

The "first cost" of an automobile is a big consideration to any sane man, but the "after cost" is an even bigger consideration to any man who wants to remain sane in his automobile investment.

The "after cost" or upkeep is what a car costs you to maintain, run, and enjoy, after you have bought it, and it is mighty hard to enjoy an automobile if it costs you too much to run.

The Maxwell has lowered all economy records for:

- 1st—Miles per set of tires
- 2nd—Miles per gallon of gasoline
- 3rd—Miles per quart of lubricating oil
- 4th—Lowest year-in-and-year-out repair bills

1916 Maxwell High-Priced-Car Features, all included for $655

Electric Starter and Electric Lights
Demountable Rims
High-tension Magneto
"One-man" Mohair Top

WIFE AROUSED BY SHOT. FINDS HUSBAND CORPSE

Mystery Surrounds A Midnight Tragedy In Kentucky Home

With a bullet hole through the head and brains oozing out, the dead body of Raymond Heltzerbrand, aged 25, was found near the cistern in the yard of his home at Cedar Leaf, Ky., opposite Manchester, O., at 12 o'clock Friday night by his wife. Aroused from her slumbers by a shot, which apparently had been fired in the front room of her little country home, Mrs. Heltzerbrand made an investigation and soon found the dead body of her husband. A pool of blood was found in the room of the home and the victim left a trail of blood to the cistern, which strengthens the belief that Heltzerbrand was shot while in his own home.

Pace Kennedy, aged 50, father-in-law of the dead man is missing and the sheriff of Lewis county has been asked to locate him as it is believed that he may know something of the affair, which is surrounded by considerable mystery.

Shortly before the shooting took place Mrs. Heltzerbrand claims that Mr. Kennedy, accompanied by John Irwin, came to her home and aroused Mr. Heltzerbrand as he had already retired for the night. The three men repaired to the front room, which adjoins their bedroom and after being in there an hour a shot was fired. She ran screaming to the room, but found no one in it. The door was open and upon reaching the yard she stumbled over the lifeless body of her young husband. It was then that she aroused the neighbors and officials, at Vanceburg, were notified of the shooting.

At an early hour this morning John Irwin, who was with Pace Kennedy was caught on the C. & O. ferryboat at Manchester. He told the officials that the last he saw of Kennedy he was making for his home three miles back of Cedar Leaf. He admitted, according to word from Manchester that Kennedy and Heltzerbrand had had an argument before the shooting took place.

Mrs. Heltzerbrand stated to the Lewis county authorities today that so far as she knew that her father, Pace Kennedy, and her husband, Raymond Heltzerbrand, were on the best of terms.

An examination of Heltzerbrand's body showed that he had been shot only once, the ball entering over the left eye and passing entirely through the victim's head. Both Kennedy and Heltzer-brand are well known in Manchester, where the news of the mysterious affair created something of a sensation.

Mrs. Heltzerbrand became hysterical this morning and required the services of a physician.

Cedar Leaf is on the C. & O. and is located directly opposite Manchester. The Heltzerbrand home, a one story house is located on the hill overlooking this village and the Ohio river.

Patch Up Quarrel

An affidavit charging her husband with abusing her filed in police court by Mrs. Clay Parks, has been dismissed, as the police were asked by the wife not to arrest her husband when they went to the home Friday night. The couple seemed to have patched up their differences.

Big Race Meet at State Fair

UNDER the management of C. K. Patterson of Piquette, member of the board of agriculture, the race meet at the state fair this year is going to be a real "hammer." The entrants are more enthusiastic than ever before in the history of Ohio fairs and devotees of speed thrills are going to have a paradise of excitement. Classy thoroughbreds already are being worked out in their paces in anticipation of the fair events and the track is being put into fine condition. Special arrangements are being made for the convenience of women who are fond of witnessing fast horses at their best. The following program will give an inkling of what is to be expected:

Brand And Lawson Buy The East End Furniture Company; Will Move To Their New Site

The stock and assets of the East End Furniture Company were sold Friday afternoon to Thomas Brand and Ernest Lawson by the receivers, J. P. Purdum and H. E. Thompson. The price paid was $13,500.

The new owners will discontinue their store at 308 Chillicothe street and will move the stock to their new store at Eleventh and Lawson streets. The firm will continue under the name of Brand & Lawson, and will conduct a general furniture business, in which they have been successful in the past. They took charge of their new place Saturday morning.

The price received for the East End Company's holdings was comparatively low, but it was the best offer that could be secured by the receivers, who have been operating the business since the company went into the hands of receivers several months ago. The warehouse building on Gallia street brought $3,500, and the stock and accounts of the firm $10,000.

Several weeks will be required by the receivers to wind up the affairs of the East End Furniture Company. It is estimated that the creditors of the old firm will receive about forty per cent.

COLONIAL DAUGHTERS TO ERECT MONUMENT

Cincinnati, Aug. 28.—The National Society of Colonial Daughters of America, at a meeting here yesterday voted a memorial to be erected in honor of the women of the colonial period from 1607 to 1776.

The regents of the Colonial Daughters of America of New York, Virginia, Ohio, Kentucky, Missouri, Delaware, California, New Jersey and the District of Columbia, will co-operate with the national society in carrying the project to a successful issue. The location for the monument will be decided by a vote of the majority of members at a later date.

PHARMACY BOARD MAY ENFORCE LAW

Columbus, Aug. 28.—The state pharmacy board will meet in Columbus Monday to prepare to enforce the new White law which is designed to raise pharmacy standards. One of the requirements of the law is that all who enter the employ of a drug store with a view to becoming pharmacists must register as apprentices with the board. The new law increases the educational requirements of applicants for certificates as assistant pharmacists and pharmacists.

At the Monday meeting the board will appoint an entrance examiner with the degree of B. A. or B. S. to pass upon preliminary education of applicants for admission to recognized schools of pharmacy. Applicants for entrance to pharmacy schools must have educational qualifications equal to at least two years high school work. Proprietors of drug stores or their registered pharmacists must register the names of apprentices with the board. The White law was enacted at the recent legislative session and has just gone into effect.

BANK OF ENGLAND INVADDED BY WOMEN

London, Aug. 28.—The very sanctum of British conservatism, the Bank of England, has been invaded by women clerks. Over 200 of them are now employed in the bank in various forms of clerical work. While it is the fact that gave women the opportunity of replacing men of military age, it is also war that created additional work at the bank through the war loan business.

Women have been employed in the Bank of England in the humble note-sorting capacity since 1855, but they had never before done clerical work. They often put in as much as twelve hours a day.

Other banks, it is stated, now contemplate following the lead of the Bank of England, which, despite its former prejudice against women, has been historically known as the Old Lady of Threadneedle Street.

WAR BRINGS MANY PROXY MARRIAGES

Paris, Aug. 28.—Since the new law of April of this year authorizing military marriages by proxy came into force, over 700 such marriages have been performed. The law provided that two months must elapse between the application for authorization and the performance of the ceremony. One result of this delay is that in several cases the bridegroom has been killed on the battlefield by the time the proxy marriage took place.

COMPLIMENT WARWICK

The Cincinnati Times-Star of Saturday printed an excellent half-toned of Walter W. Warwick, prospective comptroller of the treasury accompanied by the following complimentary written:

Walter Winter Warwick, prospective comptroller of the treasury, was born at Lucasville, Scioto county, Ohio, in 1868. He came to Cincinnati six years later. He is a graduate of Hughes high school and of the law class of 1890 of the Cincinnati college. In 1892 he served William H. Taft, then on the United States Circuit court bench, as private secretary. He is a member of Cincinnati Masonic organizations, Loyal Legion and the Bar association. His Washington career began in 1893, when he became private secretary to Robert Bonner Bowler, of Cincinnati, who was appointed by President Cleveland as comptroller of the treasury.

THE PRICE SHE PAYS

There is hardly an American woman nowadays who can keep pace with the demands made upon her time and energy without paying the penalty of ill-health. It may be that dreadful headache, dragging pains, headaches, nervousness or the tortures of a displacement. It is the price she pays. To women in this condition Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound comes as a boon and a blessing. A simple remedy made from roots and herbs which brings glorious health to suffering women.

ONLY TEN CENTS WILL BE CHARGED FOR GEEK FAIR

Admission to the Geeks' Indoor Fair beginning September 6, will be ten cents, instead of twenty-five cents, as originally intended. The change was decided upon at a meeting of the executive committee of the Geeks in charge of the affair Friday evening.

The twenty-five cent tickets already sold will be good for three admissions to the fair. Everything is progressing favorably, and a large crowd is almost assured. All of the proceeds will be used to buy shoes and stockings for the poor school children next winter.

Secretary F. W. Baesman sent the following letter to every fraternal society in the city, enlisting the co-operation of each in the worthy movement:

"You are perhaps aware of the fact that the Group of Geeks are going to present an Indoor Fair in this city under dates the 6, 7, 8, 9, 10 and 11 of September, 1915. We are, however, not so certain that you are as familiar with the intent and purpose of this fair as we should like you to be, therefore, ask the privilege of submitting this brief summary.

"The members of the Group of Geeks desire to do their part in the way of taking care of the city's worthy poor children, and decided to undertake such an entertainment for the exclusive purpose of creating a fund with which to provide shoes for every worthy child in Portsmouth, in need during the coming winter.

"Inasmuch as they have undertaken a cause so worthy they are anxious that such be a complete success, and by way of promoting the matter, I desire to enlist the aid of all the Sunday schools in the city. We thought it not unreasonable to ask that each such school arrange for disposing of, not less than one hundred tickets among their associates. If this be done we will be in a position to provide shoes for every child in the city that should be so provided from a charity fund.

"Remember every cent derived from the sale of tickets and otherwise at the fair, will positively go into the Shoe Fund. And should any one of your scholars, that have poor parents, need assistance in this particular article, all you have to do is to give an order to the Geeks' secretary from your superintendent of such school, and that child will be provided for without any red-tape or publicity.

"May we not receive your encouragement and call for at least the minimum number of such tickets.

"Thanking you in advance for an assistance you may see fit to grant us, I am,

"Very respectfully,
"F. W. BAESMAN,

BOY SCOUTS COME HOME TONIGHT FROM KENTUCKY

Carter Caves, Ky.
Aug. 28, 1915.
(Special to The Times)
(By "Freshie")

The Scouts of Troop 8 spent a great day today, starting early in the morning over the mountain trails to the "Bridge of Sighs" and the "Fern Bridge." The former is a natural bridge of about the same height of the famous one in Virginia and is certainly a wonderful sight. The Fern Bridge while not so large is certainly a thing of beauty as it is covered entirely by growing ferns.

The day's activities were brought to a close with a swell camp-fire program. It was a real "joy night." The program was in charge of Patrol Leader Arthur Doll, and consisted of songs around the fire; recitation by Harold Devoss; song by Arnold Evans; blackface sketch by Arthur Doll and Frank Davis; two short talks by Corwin Knowles and Arthur Doll; songs by the Camp Quartette. One of the most pleasing features of the evening's program was an experience meeting in which every fellow around the fire told when and how he was led into the scout movement. Then followed a yell fest which brought to a close one of the best days ever spent by our boys. Mr. and Mrs. Vickers, of the Carter Caves Inn were guests at the camp fire.

Tomorrow is rest day and the scouts will observe the day by resting, preparatory to their return hike home.

NOTES
Friday our lunch will play the Carter City Stars and Saturday they will play their old rivals, the Garrison team. Lefty Devoss will twirl both games.

The return trip will be made via the high trestles on the Kinzippick R. R. The health of the camp is 10 per cent and weather ideal. These cool nights have made sleeping great. There are two pests unknown at Carter Caves—flies and mosquitoes.

Everybody happy tomorrow as we have hot biscuits and watermelon on the side. Both are real luxuries in camp.

Carter, Ky.
August 27, 1915.
(Special to The Times)
(By "Freshie")

The last day of Troop 8's stay at the Carter Caves was decided by the best of the entire week. Yes, Thursday is a day never to be forgotten by these jolly campers. In the morning we visited again the beautiful "Landed Cave" and then hiked down to see the cliffs of Tygart Creek. They very much resemble the celebrated palisades of the Hudson.

The swimming in Tygart was great; our boys staying in for over an hour. We then went to the watermelon patch where we ate luscious melons to our heart's content. The boys rested in the afternoon and in the evening the entire party were invited to the "Carter Caves Inn" where they were the guests of Prop. Vickers and wife. The boys gave their hosts a splendid program, assisted by Miss Beulah Hart pianist and vocalist. The big feature of the evening was a debate, the subject being "Resolved, That married life is more blessed than single life." Affirmative Richard Knost and Earl Mauley, negative Corwin Knowles and Harry Doll. The judges gave a decision in favor of the negative side. Then came the yell fest, between two groups which proved to be a "peppery" affair. Yum! Yum! Then came the watermelon feast and how our bunch did clean up on those dozen juicy melons. Hearty Davis, as usual, carried off the eating honors. The boys then gave Mr. and Mrs. Vickers a hearty vote of thanks and the most pleasant day of the week came to an end.

NOTES
The bunch will leave Carter City at noon Friday and camp the same night at Ruggles, arriving at Garrison Saturday in time to play the Garrison ball team.

Our scouts made scores of friends during their trip who are insisting that they come again next year.

Home again Saturday night, then for one more night's rest on a real mattress and "cots" which only a mother can cook.

True Secret of Keeping Youthful Looking

(The Beauty Seeker.)

"The real secret of keeping young-looking and beautiful," says a well-known hygienist, "is to keep the liver and bowels normally active. Without these two organs, poisonous waste products accumulate in the blood, and the blood is not so healthy. The blood is not so healthy in various organs, tissues, joints. One becomes flabby, obese, nervous, mentally sluggish, dull-eyed, wrinkled and sallow of face.

"But to get liver and bowels working as they ought, without producing evil after-effects, has been the problem. Fortunately, there is a prescription of natural and potent blood-purifiers, which is not a conventional tablet form. Its value is due largely to an ingredient derived from the human body itself, and it is called 'Sentinel Tablets' because of its effectiveness in cleansing the blood of its impurities. There is no harmful or mercurial origin. There is no habit-forming element in the tablets. It is not a 'strong' medicine, and its use is not followed by weakness or exhaustion. On the contrary, these natural vegetable tablets tend to improve tone and elasticity to the relaxed intestinal wall. Sentinel tablets, which may be procured from any druggist—a dime's worth will do—will prove a revelation to any constipated, liver-troubled person."

Chief Cause of Pimples, Blisters, Sallow Skin

(Messenger of Health.)

Unhealthy eruptions, pimples, blotches, sallow or muddy skin, usually are due to a sluggish liver, a constipated bowels and a polluted blood stream as a consequence. How foolish in such cases to resort to outward applications, which can never have a permanent effect. If more people only knew it, there is a very simple remedy, to be found in any drug store, which is as effective as it is harmless and quick acting. It is an old formula, long recognized by the medical profession, which has been put in tablet form, and at such small cost no one need now be deprived of its wonderful benefits.

"Sentinel tablets"—that's the name—act on the entire vegetable and there's a habit-forming ingredient. You need only eat about a dime's worth, and swallow as it is called to realize there's nothing else quite so good for the purpose. The action to the morning is an easy, so soothing, and laxative of a weakening effect. You feel truly refreshed and invigorated. Sentinel tablets are not only safe, but they are the most reliable, most reliable treatment for constipation of the character mentioned.

Great Demand for New Constipation Remedy

They say that the advent of the "sentinel tablet" as a vegetable substitute for laxative has resulted in an extraordinary demand for this remarkable product. It seems to have made a hit particularly with those afflicted with chronic constipation, who were quick to recognize its advantages over calomel and the usual laxatives.

Sentinel tablets, aside from their efficacy, doubtless owe their success largely to a tendency to aid in bringing about natural functioning—instead of encouraging the "calomel habit." Also, instead of increasing the membranous lining of the organs involved, they exert a healing influence. Instead of weakening, they add tone to the intestinal wall. They work so easily and gently, they are of course preferred on this account to the violent acting purgatives. Their laxative action is another reason for the popularity of sentinel tablets. One need procure only a dime's worth, and take one tablet upon retiring, to be convinced of their ideal remedy for constipation, torpid liver, and their many evil consequences, has finally been found.—Druggists everywhere.

Roy McElhaney Named District Thrift Will Be Taught Pupils In The Schools

The appointment of Roy McElhaney as district manager of the Woodmen of the World for Southern Ohio was made by J. H. Boggs, head consul, of Cincinnati, at the meeting of the River City Camp, Friday evening. He succeeds George A. Ditty, resigned. Mr. McElhaney is one of the most prominent and active members of the organization in the city, and his appointment was well received by the membership. He is chief overseer of the Tri-State Log Rolling Association, major in the uniformed rank, consul command-der of River City Camp and has often represented the Camp at various conventions of the order. Head Consul Boggs was the guest of honor at the meeting, and made an instructive talk on the proceedings of the national meeting of the order in Minneapolis last month.

The big class initiation movement in November was officially launched at this meeting. The class will be known as the George A. Ditty class in honor of the former district manager, and it is hoped to have over 100 candidates.

Several applications were received at the meeting. Much praise was bestowed upon the members of the prize-winning degree team, which conferred the initiatory work upon one candidate, C. J. Bentley, in their usual impressive style. It was the first meeting since the team returned from the annual encampment.

The attendance was large. The New Boston and South Portsmouth Camps turning out in large numbers to welcome the Head Consul of the order. Light refreshments were served after the meeting.

The value of thrift and economy is to be instilled into the school children of Portsmouth in action taken by the school board at a meeting held Friday night last.

Believing that the children should develop a saving instinct, arrangements were completed to give as many pupils as wish them cards that contain places for 50 one-cent stamps. When the children have a penny they may buy a stamp from their teacher and when the card is filled out it may be taken to the Royal Savings and Loan Company, where a per cent interest will be paid on them.

It was announced last night by Clerk Will Hazlebeck. This scheme has been put in working order in the Columbus schools and the results have been pleasing to students, teachers, parents and school officials. Board members declared last night. It is the first time that a plan of this character has ever been adopted by the school board here and its results will be watched with interest.

The contract for sodding the terrace in front of the Garfield building was awarded to Luther Griffin. The schedule amounting to $2,920.89, was allowed.

Lawrence W. Bridge, was appointed teacher of Latin in the High School and his salary was fixed at $1,000.

The matter of screening windows of the Garfield building was referred to the building and repair committee. Bids for installing a new heating system in the Campbell Avenue building were opened and the contract was awarded to Schmidt and Watkins on their bid of $1,385. Joseph Lovin's bid was $1,450, and The Trischler Plumbing Company's bid was $1,421.

Supt. Frank Appel submitted his annual assignment of teachers and the list was approved. It was published in Friday's Times.

"BOYS IN BLUE" TO HELP BOOST KORN KARNIVAL

Bailey Post, G. A. R., decided at its regular meeting Friday evening to turn out in a body for the Korn Carnival during the Korn Festival. Vehicles will probably be provided for them, as in the past. The Post will also participate in the Boosters' Parade on the first night of the Carnival if the committee desires.

The Post also voted to accept the invitation from the Sons of Veterans' Auxiliary to attend a camp-fire celebration at the S. O. V. hall on the evening of September 17th. All of the patriotic societies in the city will participate in the patriotic program.

As many of the members of the Post as can will attend the big Soldiers' Reunion at Ironton on September 15th, the cordial invitation of the Ironton committee having been formally accepted.

Former Portsmouth Residents Honored

Miss Anna S. Ball formerly of Portsmouth, but now of Cincinnati, has recently been elected assistant treasurer of the South Covington & Cincinnati St. Ry. Co. and the Union Light, Heat and Power Co., of Covington, Ky.

This property together with the Union Gas Electric Co., of Cincinnati was recently acquired by the Columbia Gas Electric Co. of New York.

A few months since, Miss Ball was transferred to their Cincinnati office where she represents the only street railway in their combined companies.

Miss Anna Sherlock also a former resident of Portsmouth, and assistant secretary and treasurer of the Columbia Gas & Electric company of New York and of the Union Gas & Electric company of Cincinnati was elected assistant secretary of the Kentucky companies of which Miss Ball is assistant treasurer.

Rev. Oakes has been visiting friends and relatives at Sciotoville and at the request of friends decided to preach tonight. The public is invited.

SMALL CROWD

The Proctorville Fair closed Friday and it is said the crowd was the smallest that ever attended a Lawrence county fair. Bad weather is blamed for the lack of attendance. The fair this year was only passively successful.

Applications Are Received

Several applications for membership were received at the regular meeting of the Modern Woodmen of America Friday evening, which was brief, owing to the absence of Consul T. C. Patterson and Clerk L. A. Zueker.

WAS KNOWN IN IRONTON

The Ironton Irontonian Saturday morning said:

"The death of Mrs. Frances Warren Pershing, wife of Brigadier General John J. Pershing, U. S. A., at San Francisco, Cal., in a fire which destroyed the Pershing home, came as a terrible shock to the many friends of Mrs. Pershing, who has visited this city on a number of occasions as the guest of Miss Florence Hutsinpillar, of Fifth and Lawrence streets. The unfortunate lady was Miss Hutsinpillar's dearest school friend and chum, and the Hutsinpillar family was deeply grieved to learn of her tragic demise."

B. Of E. Members Holding Meeting

Members of the boards of education from all over the county are in annual session this morning at the high school auditorium, the meeting opening at ten o'clock. A round-table discussion of topics of interest to school affairs generally and an address by J. L. Clifton, assistant state superintendent of public instruction, featured the session, which was presided over by E. O. McCaven, county school superintendent.

LADIES' SECRET TO DARKEN GRAY HAIR

Bring back color, gloss and thickness with Grandma's recipe of Sage and Sulphur.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous, remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of fuss.

With wavy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant and you appear years younger.

WILL RAISE MONEY FOR KARNIVAL NEXT WEEK

Committees Named; Be Prepared When They Call Upon You

The financial committee of the Korn Karnival, which has its work out for it during the next week will start Tuesday on the task of raising sufficient money to defray the expenses of the 1915 Korn Karnival.

This is one of the important features of the Karnival and each merchant, who contributed to the financial success of the Karnival is expected to duplicate his donation of last year. "We expect quite a few business men to increase their donations," said Ben Harris of the financial committee Saturday.

"This committee should be received with as much courtesy as possible as the Karnival benefits every person in the city in a direct or indirect way. We are not raising the money for ourselves, but for the greatest trade producer that the city has ever had." The committee has sub-divided its work and hopes to complete the money-raising expedition in a few days. Here is how the various districts have been apportioned off:

DISTRICT NO. 1.
Chillicothe Street, 4th to 7th both sides—A. Marting, Dan Thomas, Isadore Goodman.

DISTRICT NO. 2.
Chillicothe Street, 2nd to 4th both sides—W. Bart, W. Schwartz, B. Harris.

DISTRICT NO. 3.
Gallia Street, Chillicothe to John, both sides—H. Winters, A. Brunner, H. S. Hutchison; Second street, Chillicothe to Market, including Market.

DISTRICT NO. 7.
Brewery and saloons—St. Straus, Bud Stahler, Alex Glockner.

DISTRICT NO. 6.
Wholesale Houses and Banks—Albert Zoellner, John McMillan.

DISTRICT NO. 5.
Manufacturers—Samuel Morehow, F. L. Marting.

DISTRICT NO. 4.
Second Street, Chillicothe to Market, including Market street—Chas. Dachler, Leo Sommers, Geo. Kahl.

Directors of the Retail Merchants' association will meet Monday night and a big volume of Korn Karnival business will come up for final disposition.

Board of Education Is Confident Of Getting More Money; Tax Rate To Be A Little Higher

According to E. C. Jackson, president of the board of education and Stanley McCall, city solicitor, Attorney General Edw. Turner has sustained them in the contention that the County Budget Commission has not the power to curtail the school levy so long as it does not exceed the limit of ten mills plus the sinking fund levy.

Messrs. Jackson and McCall went to Columbus Friday to see Mr. Turner, who, they claim, said that the board was entitled to what they asked for so long as it did not exceed the legal limitations. He also stated that the over-draft of $25,000, used to pay teachers' and janitors' salaries was not an illegal one, and could not be so construed. He said that if such were true, every city and village in Ohio would be guilty of illegal payments.

Members of the board claim that their request to the Budget Commission did not exceed the limit. The commission, on the other hand, contended that they did not have the power to make levy for overdrafts.

A joint meeting of the board of education and Budget Commission will be held Monday morning at 9 o'clock to thresh out the problem. It is likely that a revision will have to be made in the figures of T. C. Patterson, the clerk of the commission, to take care of the additional levy.

PHIL STREICH BUYS THE M'CORMICK PROPERTY ON THE NORTH SIDE OF SIXTH

One of the most important real estate deals that has been completed in the city for some time was formally closed Saturday, when Phil Streich, well known druggist, came into possession of J. T. McCormick's residence on the north side of Sixth street, just west of Chillicothe. The dimensions of the lot are 41 by 107, and the consideration in the deal, which was closed by George W. Grimes, was $18,500.

Mr. Streich owns the property adjoining the McCormick home from the west, and he now has an 82 foot strip of property on Sixth street and the building he occupies. The dimensions of this building are 20 by 82 1-2.

CARRANZA DEFEATED?
Washington, Aug. 28.—General Villa telegraphed his Washington agent today from Durango, saying the defeat of Carranza troops at Villa Garcia several days ago was very serious, their losses being 200 dead and about five hundred wounded. Villa's forces under General Raoul Madro continue to invest Monterrey, defended by Carranza troops commanded by General Trevino.

THREE PEOPLE POISONED AFTER EATING OF FISH

Three people, Mrs. Florence Knight, of Oklahoma City, Miss Rose Reilly and Mrs. Margaret Reilly, all residing at 1234 Third street were taken ill Friday from eating fish which they claimed they purchased from a man named John Scouten, who it developed sold them for Henry Brown, a Ninth street fish dealer.

The three victims had entirely recovered from their illness Saturday morning.

Leave Sunday On A Hunting Tour

Attorneys Henry T. and Arthur H. Bannon and Miss Elizabeth Bannon will leave Sunday afternoon on a six weeks' hunting trip through Montana. They are going thoroughly equipped and expect to have a great time. They will be met in Montana by James Blair, who has made a number of extensive hunting trips with Arthur H. Bannon.

Anticipating that they will run into cold weather the party have purchased wool-lined khaki suits and expect to be ready to meet any brand of weather they may run into. The party expects to be away from all telephone and telegraph service and have planned to enjoy the rigors of real outdoor life for over 30 days. Messrs. Bannon and Bannon and Blair expect to hunt big game while in Montana.

Visits Old Friends

William Koblenz, a former Portsmouth boy, is in the city visiting friends and old scenes. He left the River City in 1883. He was at one time engaged in the manufacture of shoes with Sam Houston, and their factory was located in the Houston building in the West End. Mr. Koblenz is being warmly greeted by his many friends here.

Word came from Ashland Saturday that there is no improvement in the condition of Father N. N. Goselin, and that he is in a serious condition. He has many friends in Portsmouth.

LABOR DAY OUTING HAS BEEN CALLED OFF

Owing to financial conditions, the fact that Portsmouth will have a circus, two ball games, the Geeks' Indoor Fair and many other attractions on Labor Day, Monday, Sept. 6 the Central Labor Council, at a special meeting,

Friday night, decided to call off their all day outing scheduled for Millbrook park on this day. Coupled with this the announcement was made that this decision was arrived at amicably and not because of any controversy with any firm or corporation.

TERMINALS

Gladys and Mary Jackson of Hales Creek are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Vencer of Gallia street.

Margaret Workman of Walnut street had a bad gash cut in her left foot Friday when she stepped on a piece of broken glass.

Arthur Linck and Ray Duvendek have returned to the city after a visit to Niagara Falls and eastern points of interest. Linck, who is a clerk in Master Merriam-J. S. Pearce's office, resumed his duties Saturday. Duvendek will go to Columbus Sunday and enjoy the state fair next week.

Auto Trip Enjoyed

The Ashland, Ky., Independent of local interest Friday, said:

"S. S. Willis, E. P. Rice and R. M. Davidson, of Ashland, Dr. N. K. Moxley, of Ironton, and C. L. Fred, of Portsmouth, are home from their vacation. Cross and family have spent two weeks visiting ocean resorts and with relatives in eastern cities. N. & W. Special Officer Bob Reno is busy in the vicinity of the Peoples Paving brick plant where young men and boys have been jumping on trains in large numbers the last two weeks. Boys in short trousers are giving the special officer his most trouble. After being warned and caught on the trains again the offenders will be hauled into court. The rains of Friday loosened a large amount of dirt on Damarin hill which slid onto cement sidewalk Saturday morning. A steam shovel will have to be used in clearing way the slide. Regular services will be held in the tabernacle Sunday. Sunday school at 2:00 o'clock after which Evangelist O. L. King will preach. Evening services at 7:30. The revival services will continue during the week over Sunday, September 5. John Dean, 55, of Kenova had his left hand severely lacerated Friday at Kenova, W. Va. Dean and Andy Gains were disinfecting cars and were trying to open a car door. The door stuck but all at once gave away, catching Dean's hand. The company physician dressed the injured member.

GERMANY'S SYSTEM OF EDUCATION CAUSE OF WAR. HE SAYS

Oakland, Calif., Aug. 28.—That Germany was the victim of a wrong system of education was the declaration made by John Mez, of Munich, Germany, at the closing session here last night of the National Education Association. "Internationalism" was the subject of his address. He said in part: "Those in my country who made war did not mean to destroy. They are the victims of a wrong system of education. They have been taught nothing beyond an irrational conception of militarism. "Everyone who lives in the United States and loves civilization and humanity should be grateful to the man who has kept America out of the war."

"Education in internationalism," he continued, "means educating the old men first to change the idea that collective homicide is the proper thing. "The first duty of a man is to defend his country but not to attack any other country. "The most gratifying sight in the world is the spectacle of the college presidents of the country talking peace for education is the one great agency which will wipe out the stupidity of militarism. "David Bancroft Johnson, president of the Winthrop Normal and Industrial School, Rock Hill, S. C., the new president of the National Education Association reviewed the history of the organization and declared that the convention was the greatest in its record."

GERMAN DEBT WILL BE $625,000,000

Amsterdam, Aug. 28.—(Via London)—The Berlin Vorwaerts is discussing the new German war loan directs attention to what it characterizes as the alarming financial situation which Germany must face at the conclusion of the war. "After the war," says the paper, "The Imperial debt and pensions alone will demand an annual expenditure of at least two and a half billion marks."

($625,000,000) or a little less than the united ordinary and extraordinary Imperial expenditure for 1912. In other words, the income of the empire hitherto will only suffice to pay the interest on the national debt. For all other expenses new sources of taxation must be created. Who ever remembers the taxation controversies of 1908 and 1909 can easily imagine into what international political difficulties is leading us."

Bury Fire Victims At Home Sunday

San Francisco, Aug. 28.—Friends of Brigadier General John Pershing, whose wife and three children perished in a fire at the Presidio military reservation here yesterday, completed arrangements today to have the bodies shipped to Cheyenne, Wyoming, for burial. Cheyenne is the home of Mrs. Pershing's father, United States Senator Francis E. Warren. General Pershing will meet the funeral party in Oakland, as his friends don't want him to view the blackened ruins of his former home. Mrs. Pershing was a popular matron and the tragedy has plunged the reservation into mourning. General Pershing will arrive tomorrow morning from El Paso.

BANK OF ENGLAND INVADED BY WOMEN

London, Aug. 28.—The very sanctum of British conservatism, the Bank of England, has been invaded by women clerks. Over 200 of them are now employed in the bank in various forms of clerical work. While it is the war that gave women the opportunity of replacing men of military age, it is also war that created additional work at the bank through the war loan business.

Women have been employed in the Bank of England in the humble note-sorting capacity since 1895, but they had never before done clerical work. They often put in as much as twelve hours a day.

Other banks, it is stated, now contemplate following the lead of the Bank of England, which, despite its former prejudice against women, has been historically known as the Old Lady of Threadneedle Street.

REALIZES DREAM OF 70 YEARS AGO

A day dream of seventy years ago, when he, a lad of thirteen, edged his way through a crowd of countrymen in Tokyo to grasp Commodore Perry's hand, has come true for Archbishop Nishimura. That dream was to visit the United States.

MAY GIVE VOTE TO DANISH NEGROES

Copenhagen, Aug. 28.—Proposals have recently been made looking to the granting of universal suffrage to the negro population of the Danish West Indies, but no action in the matter will be taken until a report is received from a commission to be appointed to consider the result of universal suffrage among the negro population in the Southern states of the United States.

JAPAN REFUSES TO SHIP TEUTON GOODS

Tokio, Aug. 28.—Japan has requested her various steamship companies to discontinue handling German and Austrian goods to and from China, or along the Chinese coast. Great Britain has been anxious to have Japan's support in a move to cease all trading with the Germans and Austrians in China. At first Japan decided against the project, but has now fallen in with the plan.

WOMAN LOSES FIVE SONS IN BATTLES

Berlin, Aug. 28.—The colonel of a regiment stationed in the West issues an appeal for assistance to a mother who had suffered terribly through the war. Her nine sons and a son-in-law went to the front. Five of the sons are dead and three of them and the son-in-law are severely wounded.

GERMANY DENIES SUBMARINE SINKING

Berlin, Aug. 28.—(Via London)—The admiralty today made denial of the official British statement that a German submarine had been sunk this week by a British aviator off the Belgian coast near Ostend. The admiralty also made a report on the attack on August 16 by a German submarine on the English coast. The announcement is as follows: "One of our submarines on August 16 destroyed by gun fire the Benzol factory with the attached Benzol warehouses and coke furnaces near Harrington, England. The statement of the British press that the submarine attacked the open towns of Harrington, Parton and White Haven is incorrect. "The same submarine on August 15 was fired at from a great distance, in the Irish sea, by a large passenger steamer, probably a royal mail steam packet, but was not hit. "The British admiralty announced on August 27 that a German submarine had been destroyed and sunk off Ostend by British seaplanes. This is incorrect. The submarine was attacked, but not hit, and returned to port undamaged. "The British statement referred by German admiralty was made on August 26. It stated that squadron commander Arthur Bigsworth had destroyed, single-handed, a German submarine off Ostend. The announcement contained these words: "The submarine was observed to be completely wrecked and sunk off Ostend."

PHARMACY BOARD MAY ENFORCE LAW

Columbus, Aug. 28.—The state pharmacy board will meet in Columbus Monday to prepare to enforce the new White law which is designed to raise pharmacy standards. One of the requirements of the law is that all who enter the employ of a drug store with a view to becoming pharmacists must register as apprentices with the board. The new law increases the educational requirements of applicants for certificates as assistant pharmacists and pharmacists. At the Monday meeting the board will appoint an entrance examining with the degree of B. A. or B. S. to pass upon preliminary education of applicants for admission to recognized schools of pharmacy. Applicants for entrance to pharmacy schools must have educational qualifications equal to at least two years high school work. Proprietors of drug stores or their registered pharmacists must register the names of apprentices with the board. The White law was enacted at the recent legislative session and has just gone into effect.

Marshall Cannot Learn Wars' Cause

Edwardsville, Ills., Aug. 28.—"I have read with great care the history of all the European countries for the last 100 years and I have read all the state documents issued in connection with the present war, but I confess that I don't know why this war is being fought," declared Vice President Marshall in an address here last night.

Union Depot Firms To Pay High Taxes

Columbus, Aug. 28.—Union depot companies and messenger and signal companies will have to pay taxes this year on valuations more than half a million dollars above those of last year. The state tax commission in a report issued today gives figures which show that the total valuations of the two classes of companies have been raised $653,720 since 1914.

Speaking of immigrants Mr. Marshall said: "I believe in inviting the foreigners of all nations to come to the United States. If a man cannot concentrate on the needs of the United States and take his mind off the country from which he came, that man should go back immediately. The recruiting offices are always open in London, Paris and Berlin."

FUTURIST DREAM CAUSES SENSATION

Miss Violet King, one of the most prominent members of the Youngest of Newport, has completed and is wearing this multi-colored "futurist" dress. This novel design is taking with her friends, and is expected to come into popular favor. Miss King did not volunteer to make public the theme which the design was supposed to depict, but no artist who happened to pass remarked that it was an inspiration for a cubist painting he was then planning.

SHIPMENT OF GOLD ON WAY

New York, Aug. 28.—Word was received here today that another large shipment of gold from Great Britain was on its way to New York to Halifax via Bangor, Maine. Officers of the express company which will handle the shipment admitted that the amount of gold is very large, but would not state its value. It is understood that the money was brought from England to Halifax in a battleship.

WAR BRINGS MANY PROXY MARRIAGES

Paris, Aug. 28.—Since the new law of April of this year authorizing military marriages by proxy came into force, over 700 such marriages have been performed. The law provided that two months must elapse between the application for authorization and the performance of the ceremony. One result of this delay is that in several cases the bridegroom has been killed on the battlefield by the time the proxy marriage took place.

The latest telephone wires in Portsmouth are those leading to the TIMES WANT AD department.

SETTLE SINKING OF LINER ARABIC FIRST

Washington, Aug. 28.—Discussion of the case of the Lusitania, sunk by a German submarine, with a loss of American lives, will not be renewed between the United States and Germany pending settlement of the Arabic incident, it was said here today. Although the United States has been notified of Germany's readiness to again take up the Lusitania affair and to offer reparation, the American government will not listen to such a proposal until the situation growing out of the sinking of the Arabic is finally settled. Nothing further on the sinking of the Arabic is looked for from Germany until the submarine commander, who sank the vessel, reports. Through Count Von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, the German government already has announced its intention to offer full satisfaction to the United States for the sinking of the liner. It is well known, of course, that the United States will not be satisfied unless American lives are paid for and assurances given that similar tragedies will not occur in the future. While administration officials are much encouraged by the German ambassador's assurances, they will continue to maintain an "open mind" on the sinking of the Arabic until German's new communication is received.

LONDON PAPERS CALL KAISERS' ACTION BIG VICTORY FOR AMERICA

London, Aug. 28.—The Daily News in an editorial today hazards the suggestion that the submarine which sank the steamship Arabic has itself since been sunk and that therefore Germany's disavowal of the action of the underwater boat commander becomes comparatively easy. The editorial continues: "If it is true that Germany is prepared to abandon or suspend her attacks the United States has won a considerable diplomatic victory. There is not the slightest reason to suppose that Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg (German Imperial chancellor), sanctioned the attack on the Arabic. The sinking of the Arabic may be assumed with some degree of certainty to have been the malignant trick of his opponents, the Tirpitzites, designed quite as much to embarrass him as to drive America to action."

The paper says that the "submission of official Germany to the United States demands is a fact of historic importance, involving nearly exhausted and that his at least recognition of the force of public opinion and insofar justifies President Wilson's patient diplomacy."

COLONIAL DAUGHTERS TO ERECT MONUMENT

Cincinnati, Aug. 28.—The National Society of Colonial Daughters of America at a meeting here yesterday voted a memorial to be erected in honor of the women of the colonial period from 1607 to 1776.

The regents of the Colonial Daughters of America of New York, Virginia, Ohio, Kentucky, Missouri, Delaware, California, New Jersey and the District of Columbia, will co-operate with the national society in carrying the project to a successful issue. The location for the monument will be decided by a vote of the majority of members at a later date.

Charlie Weinert, the boy heavyweight of Newark, N. J., declares that he's going to own the heavyweight crown before he is 16 ago. Weinert is still in his teens and he has one of the most impressive records among the heavies. He has licked Jim Coffey, Gunboat Smith and most all of them, and is now laying plans to elude a match with Ward and then hurry for the belt.

Bobby Roth, a newcomer to American league ranks, is expected to land a regular berth in the outfield of the Cleveland Indians. Roth is one of the men secured by the Indians from the White Sox in the recent deal which took Joe Jackson to the Chicago American league club.

Oscar Delatelle, a member of the hurling staff of the Ironton Natives elicited the criticism of local fans Friday when he insisted on making remarks that were not becoming to a ball player and did not add to the dignity of the game. His remarks were well heard in the grandstand and if he wants to maintain an excellent reputation as a ball player he will have to cut out his remarks he insisted on making Friday. Little sarcastic jibes are always enjoyed by the fans, but when words not heard on a diamond are spoken about a ball should be omitted.

Outfielder Dills had a field day with a bat yesterday. He hit safely at least four times up and two of the bloopers were for extra bases. Dills batted consistently all season and required the delightful habit of putting a pellet with the socks tenanted.

Tyrus Cobb, Detroit, suffered a batting slump in the last few days, but still leads in the American league. His average is .358. Other hitters who follow the Georgian are:

Speaker, Boston .350; E. Collins, Chicago .341; Foulmer, Chicago, McInnis, Philadelphia and Crawford, Detroit, tied with .342; Mabel, New York .333; Lewis, Boston .302; Kinnaworth, Detroit .285.

There are 12 stolen bases with 73 and in total bases with 221. He also scored the greater number of runs—116. Burns, Detroit, leads in home runs with 5.

QUALITY AND PRICE.

Those wise enough to run the business of each one in particular and the affairs of the world in general are most insistent in saying that now is the time to acquire to ourselves the markets of the five continents and the isles of the seas because England can not properly attend to her former share of it and Germany, once the third most powerful trader, is now shut out entirely.

Along with the insistence that the opportunity is here and the peremptory injunction to hustle out and grasp it goes the accusation, to hold the trade once secured, the quality of American goods must be up to the quality fixed by the Germans, there not lacking an insinuation that home manufacturers are rather dishonest and dishonorable in the standard of quality they fix, being in this respect rather below the foreigner.

It is well enough for those that know it all and then some to direct others how they should proceed to their success and we suppose American manufacturers are duly appreciative and grateful of the advice. As for ourselves, we believe the slur that American manufacturers are prone to furnish shoddy rather than quality goods is solely gratuitous. American manufacturers make anything that will sell profitably, which means what a considerable number will buy. There are millions in this country that are looking for the cheap thing, not for the good. Both manufacturer and merchant has to cater to them, or at least find it profitable in many instances so to do. But in the main that neither affects the character of our manufacturers and the quality of their output. Make what the markets want and there is no better market than the home. The consumer can get all the quality he wants, by paying for it. There can be no greater quality deception in the world than in cutlery, yet America leads the world in the production thereof, because she makes the best at any price. American shoes are with ever expanding certainty annexing the world markets to themselves. The reason is that in style, workmanship and quality there is nothing from elsewhere to compare with them. We sell better locomotives, better sewing machines, better electrical appliances and gas furnishings than any other nation, and under sell them in the open markets.

If the world has got any money left after the war is over, it can get them in any quantity or quality desired, and don't forget there will always be some one on the ground to sell them.

Contestant Zoellner offers this tireless worker, one-half the prize he himself may win in The Times corn contest, if he will only come out and take a hand at gathering and shucking the crop. That would be easy money, were there not six other contestants every one swearing he will beat Friend Zoellner anywhere from ten to fifty bushels. But we wouldn't take it, if he were the only one in the contest. Out in Missouri we were regarded as the amateur corn shucker, but we disclaimed to go into a field that promised less than 150 bushels to the acre. Besides it's our business to encourage farmers to raise more corn and harvest it, and that generally implies shucking it.

We never pass old Athletic park without wondering why the city permits it to be converted into a miasmic pond. We are no expert, but we'll give it as our opinion that the cost of curing the sickness that resulted from the foulness thereof is greater than will ever be the worth of the land that is being made by the slow process of converting it into a pond.

New Boston can not be said to be metropolitan in either size or appearance, but her extensive scale of improvements underway show she is a real live town. With better streets and walks promises generally will be tidied up and she will be regarded as some pumpkins, which she is.

We have it again, its an ill wind that blows nobody good. Heretofore this country has been buying the bulk of its dye stuffs from Germany. A practical embargo against exports from that country has forced manufacturing concerns in that country making dyes and hereafter the American market will get its principal supply at home.

It will be noted that whenever science invents a new disease it also comes along with the invention of a cure. Somehow though the cure is not as certain as the disease and that is why out, ailments are ever on the increase.

And so the Japs have decided to get more actively into the fracas. Well, that spells more trouble for the proof reader, for that will precipitate another inundation of names that are names.

As a side issue to her brush with Austria, Italy has declared war on King Alcohol and has revoked 1,500 liquor licenses in the city of Milan alone.

May be that the Germans love peace so much is the reason why they fight so hard. You know it was always said of Grant that he swore he would have peace, even if he had to fight for it, and he sure was some fighter. By the way, it's about time this war was developing its Grant.

One thing can be passed up to the Red Cross—it has never been known to hide its light under a bushel.

BREATHING EASIER.

THE CITIZENS' CAMP.

A company of New York millionaires and lawyers, which later the former carry as an indispensable part of their retinue, are encamped at Plattsburgh and get a deal of publicity, and, possibly, some fun in playing tin soldiers for a week, just a week.

As it is publicity and not pleasure they are after they will be altogether satisfied when they fold their tents, Sunday and take the Pullmans back to "little old New York."

But why this desire for publicity that makes men of vast affairs desert their usual avocations and diversions and rough it in the rather rude and crude military camp? The answer to that the people of these United States ought to give themselves gravely to fending out. It goes without the saying, that the class of men, now encamped at Plattsburgh, would not take a week of their time for a mere frolic of this sort. Neither is it necessary to say they have not joined the militia for a term of service therein. They would not give the time for the period of enlistment to annual encampment, to say nothing of attendance at weekly drills. Past experience makes it certain enough no considerable portion of them would enlist in the event of this country becoming involved in war. In apparent frankness they admit their purpose in brief parade at soldiering is to arouse interest among the masses in the citizenry soldier and raise the militia to where in time of need it will be an efficient fighting machine. That sounds all pretty fine, but why don't the millionaires join "the militia" themselves and get on speaking terms with powder and lead? That's the question and the answer to it lies farther back than a benevolent patriotism on the part of the Plattsburgh publicity agents.

The best definition we have seen on a liberal-minded person is one who boasts of what he would do in kindness, if he had the money. Which the same it appears that a liberal mind and an open pocket book are two different propositions.

Mr. Taft says the mistake of President Wilson was not in recognizing Huerta as president of Mexico. May be he ought to know, since it can be assumed he takes it the mistake of President Taft was not in recognizing the same old Indian.

Old men for council, young men for war. We believe it. Only look at what those giddy youths, Von Bissing 71, Von Heeringen 69, Von Muckensen 65 and Von Kluck 69, are doing in the way of fighting.

Germany and Uncle Sam seem in a fair way to smooth away the misunderstanding between them. That's surely the right and acceptable thing to do.

The American Red Cross announces it will shortly withdraw all its ministrations from the European war zone. Which may mean it has now got all the publicity that pays.

For Hay Fever

When it's ninety in the shade,
And you're lifeless as a spade;
When the air is full of dust
And your head's about to bust;
When you're longing for a breeze;
And you sneeze and sneeze and sneeze—
You've got it!

When your brain is all a-fire,
And your head seems bound in wire;
When your eyes can't bear the light
And your face is swollen tight;
When your nose is all a-glow
And you blow and blow and blow—
You've got it!

When you snuffle from morn till night,
Then keep on till morning light;
When there's no chance for rest,
With a ton weight on your breast;
When your eyes refuse to sleep,
And you weep and weep and weep—
You've got it!

When you've all you can endure
And your friends come with a cure;
Too worn and weary to resist,
You take each as they insist;
When you know it's useless to try,
And they lie and lie and lie—
You've got it!

New York, August 28.—The hotel men in Manhattan have been rising hotly to refute the charges that they are cold hearted, mercenary and inhospitable. Some time ago Dr. Frank Crane, who quit the ministry because he thought he could do more good reporting, dashed off a somewhat heated article to prove that the hotels were the most cheerless places this side of the North Pole.

It stirred up a hornet's nest. George C. Boldt, who has just leased the Waldorf for $800,000 a year despite the hotel trend upward, says that the modern hotel offers more hospitality than the old style where the landlord met you at the door by improving the service.

The last of the old time hotel men was Simeon Ford, who ran the Grand Union, now torn away to make room for a cloud piercer. He was always around the office swapping jokes with the guests, but in the last few years his place was poorly patronized.

Berton Braley, summering in Wisconsin, has discovered in a little town there the last of his race—he is the old fashioned hotel keeper who, when you pay your bill asks: "D'ye ever smoke?"

MAKE THE ROADS BETTER

BY JESSE TAYLOR

Editor of 'Better Roads and Streets'

The new road law known as the "Cass Bill" will take effect Monday, September 6, 1915, and in it will be found many new and helpful provisions.

The Board of County Commissioners of any county have power to construct a public road by laying out and building a new road, or by improving, reconstructing, or repairing and existing public road or part thereof by grading, paving, draining, dragging, graveling, macadamizing, resurfacing or applying dust preventives, or by otherwise improving the same.

The filing of a petition signed by at least fifty-one per cent of the land or lot owners, residents of a county, who are to be specially taxed or assessed for said improvement, with the board of county commissioners, will make it compulsory for the commissioners to act within sixty days.

The county commissioners may, with the presentation of a petition, take the necessary steps to construct, improve or repair a public road or a part thereof upon the passage of a resolution by unanimous vote declaring a necessity therefor.

For the purpose of providing by taxation a fund for the payment of the counties portion of the cost and expenses of constructing, improving, maintaining, dragging, and repairing roads the county commissioners are authorized to levy a tax not exceeding two mills upon each dollar of the taxable property of the said county. Said levy shall be in addition to all other levies authorized by law for road purposes, but subject to the limitation on the combined maximum rate for all taxes now in force.

The county commissioners may let the work as a whole or in convenient sections as may be determined. They shall award the contract to the lowest and best bidder.

Before entering into a contract the county commissioners shall require a contractor to execute a bond payable to the State of Ohio. Such bond shall be conditioned for the payment of all material and labor furnished for or used in the construction of the road for which such contract is made.

The board of county commissioners may extend a proposed road improvement into or through a municipality when the consent of the council of said municipality has been first obtained, and such consent shall be evidenced by the proper legislation of the council of said municipality, entered upon its record.

The council of the municipality must approve such plans, specifications, profiles, cross-sections and estimates, and such council may enter into agreement with the board of county commissioners as to the part of the estimated cost and expenses of said improvement that is to be paid by the municipality.

The county highway superintendent shall erect and maintain at the cross roads, on inter-county and main market roads, suitable sign posts of a design to be prescribed and provided by the state highway commissioner, showing the names of the roads and the direction and distance to nearby villages and cities.

The highway superintendent shall build a substantial fence at least four and one-half feet high and painted white on the open side of all winding grades of at least four per cent.

The county highway superintendent, under the direction of the state highway commissioner, shall provide for the maintenance and repair of the roads of the county, under such system as may be determined expedient, so that each section of the highways of the county shall be under proper supervision and be effectively and economically improved, maintained and repaired.

The county commissioner may purchase such machinery or other equipment for construction, improvement, maintenance or repair of highways, bridges and culverts under their jurisdiction, as they may deem necessary, which shall be paid for out of any taxes levied and collected for construction, improvement, maintenance and repair of roads.

After all things even up sooner or later. The rich, for instance, gets the ice in the summer and the poor in the winter. Ray Rohn is wondering how the law of compensation will treat him. He was packing up for a motor trip through Maine when he got a summons to serve on a jury for two weeks.

He thought it would be easy and went around to see a politician friend in his ward and learned that the politician had strung along with the Bull Moose last year and was bankrupt politically.

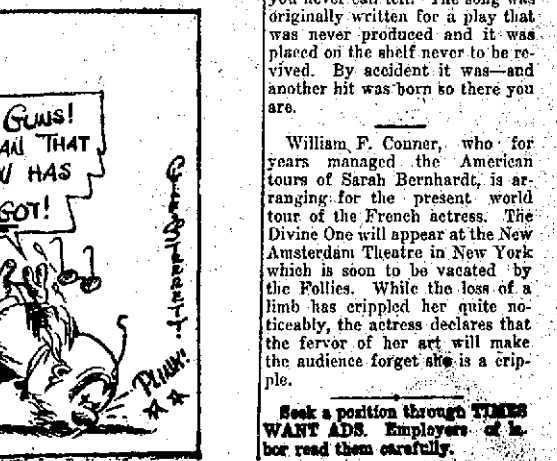

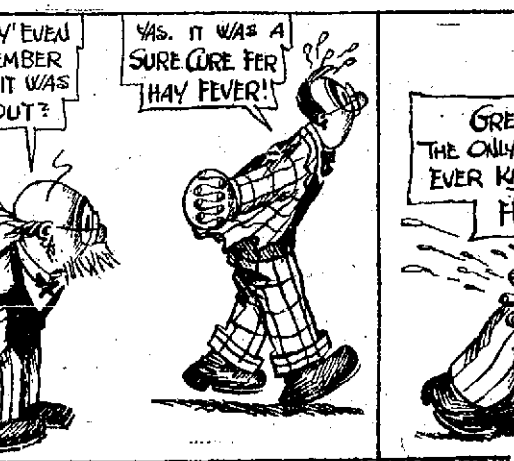

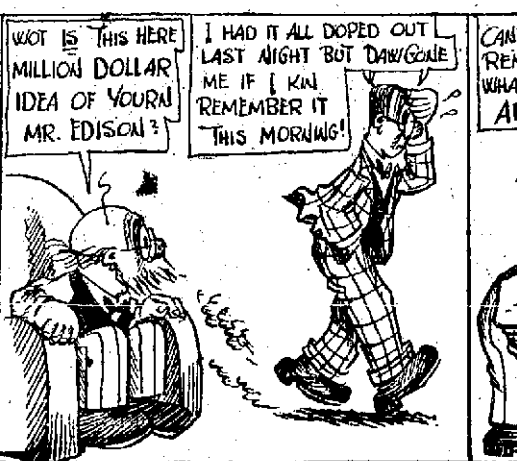

It would not have come quite so hard for Rohn if R. M. Brinkerhoff, another artist had not been present when Rohn got the summons. It seems that several years ago Rohn enjoyed a hearty laugh when Brinkerhoff spent his vacation in bed with the measles.

"Summer Love" is the name of a new song that Broadway whistles. Irene Franklin tried it out in a Forty-Eighth street theatre and it caught the fancy of the crowds which goes to show that you never can tell. The song was originally written for a play that was never produced and it was placed on the shelf never to be revived. By accident it was—and another hit was born to there you are.

Mystery Surrounds Midnight A Tragedy In Kentucky Home

With a bullet hole through the head and brains oozing out, the dead body of Raymond Helterbrand, aged 25, was found near the victim in the yard of his home at Cedar Leaf, Ky., opposite Manchester, O., at 12 o'clock Friday night by his wife. Aroused from her slumbers by a shot, which apparently had been fired in the front room of her little country home, Mrs. Helterbrand made an investigation and soon found the dead body of her husband. A pool of blood was found in the room of the home and the victim left a trail of blood to the cistern, which strengthens the belief that Helterbrand was shot while in his own home.

Pace Kennedy, aged 50, father-in-law of the dead man is missing and the sheriff of Lewis county has been asked to locate him as it is believed that he may know something of the affair, which is surrounded by considerable mystery.

Shortly before the shooting took place, Mrs. Helterbrand claims that Mr. Kennedy, accompanied by John Irwin, came to her home and aroused Mr. Helterbrand as he had already retired for the night. The three men repaired to the front room, which adjoins their bedroom and after being in there an hour a shot was fired. She ran screaming to the room, but found no one in it. The door was open and upon reaching the yard she stumbled over the lifeless body of her young husband. It was then that she aroused the neighbors and officials, at Vanceburg, who were notified of the shooting.

At an early hour this morning John Irwin, who was with Pace Kennedy was caught on the C. & O. ferryboat at Manchester. He told the officials that the last he saw of Kennedy he was making for his home three miles back of Cedar Leaf. He admitted, according to word from Manchester that Kennedy and Helterbrand had had an argument before the shooting took place.

Mrs. Helterbrand stated to the Lewis county authorities today that so far as she knew that her father, Pace Kennedy, and her husband, Raymond Helterbrand, were on the best of terms.

An examination of Helterbrand's body showed that he had been shot only once, the ball entering over the left eye and passing entirely through the victim's head. Both Kennedy and Helterbrand are well known in Manchester, where the news of the mysterious affair created something of a sensation.

Mrs. Helterbrand became hysterical this morning and required the services of a physician. Cedar Leaf is on the C. & O. and is located directly opposite Manchester. The Helterbrand home, a one story house is located on the hill overlooking this village and the Ohio river.

W. O. W. TO COME IN FORCE TO K. K.

Representative from Woodmen of the World Camps from Kentucky, West Virginia, and Ohio, will be in Portsmouth Sunday to make definite arrangements for the annual Tri-State Log Rolling, which will be held in this city on Saturday, October 9th, the last day of the Korn Karnival.

From all indications, the attendance this year will be the largest in the history of the Association, as the local officers have been busy for several weeks arousing interest among the membership in the three states. The Korn Karnival will be an added attraction, and will furnish an extra incentive for the members to come.

Present plans call for a boat excursion from Parkersburg, stopping at all points along the route to pick up passengers, and a special train from Columbus, which will bring members from Troy, Piqua, Hamilton, Dayton, and other points in northern and Central Ohio.

The meeting will be held at the county clerk's office, with Roy McElhane, Chief Overseer of the Association, presiding.

CLAIMS GARBAGE STREWN AROUND IN ALLEYS

In a communication to the mayor G. W. Ridenour, 1615 Seventh street, is calling attention to the violations of a city ordinance requiring citizens to place their garbage in suitable garbage cans. Mr. Ridenour claims that people are violating this rule and that garbage is being strewn all over the alleys of the city.

The mayor responds by stating that he has repeatedly appealed to the citizenship of the city to observe this ordinance, but his appeals to a certain extent appear to have fallen on deaf ears. He reiterates however, that he expects to continue the fight for better conditions until he has accomplished his purpose.

NEW BOSTON TO BUY SLICE OF JORDAN TRACT

At the next meeting of New Boston council an ordinance will be brought up for passage, authorizing the purchase of the Allen Jordan 30 foot strip along the west side of West avenue that has been a "bone of contention" for several years, causing several court suits between the village and Mr. Jordan.

The thirty foot strip extends from Gallia pike nearly to Grace street, the strip including all the ground between the Peabody fence and the middle of the thoroughfare. A fence was put up in the middle of the street several years ago by Mr. Jordan but was later torn down.

The paving of streets, laying of water mains and sewers in the village proper and Peabody addition are necessary for the village to acquire the land so the water mains, sewers and paved streets could be connected with those on the other side of the thirty foot strip.

The street railway company also had to have a right of way across the street. For the last month Village Solicitor Anders Skellen has been busy with parties interested in the opening of the strip and after considerable difficulty arranged to purchase the land the village to pay $1900, Portsmouth Street Railway and Light Company $100 and Peabody Realty Co., $500.

At the next meeting of council legislation will probably be passed to cover the issuance of bonds to the amount of $2000 to cover the village's share of the cost.

Brand And Lawson Buy The East End Furniture Company; Will Move To Their New Site

The stock and assets of the East End Furniture Company were sold Friday afternoon to Thomas Brand and Ernest Lawson by the receivers, J. P. Pardum and H. F. Thompson.

The price paid was $18,500. The new owners will discontinue their store at 206 Chillicothe street and will move the stock to their new store at Eleventh and Lawson streets. The firm will continue under the name of Brand & Lawson, and will conduct a general furniture business, in which they have been successful in the past. They took charge of their new place Saturday morning.

The price received for the East End Company's holdings was comparatively low, but it was the best offer that could be secured by the receivers, who have been operating the business since the company went into the hands of receivers several months ago. The warehouse building on Gallia street brought $3500, and the stock and accounts of the firm $10,000.

Several weeks will be required by the receivers to wind up the affairs of the East End Furniture Company. It is estimated that the creditors of the old firm will receive about forty per cent.

POLICE CHIEF IS BETTER

Police Chief W. T. McCarthy was reported decidedly improved Saturday morning. His condition permits him eating a little solid food and he is gradually gaining strength.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Sarah Bennett
Mrs. Sarah Bennett, 78, widow of the late R. E. Bennett, died shortly after 2:30 o'clock Friday afternoon at the home of her daughter, Miss Chloe Bennett, one mile back of Sciotoville, after a long illness of liver trouble and complications.

The deceased was one of the oldest residents of the county and was well known. The news of her death came as a surprise to her host of friends who will long remember her many acts of kindness and friendly deeds.

Mrs. Bennett had made her home with her daughter for several years. She was united in marriage twice, the first time to Theodore Slattery who died, leaving one child, now Mrs. David Deemer of New Boston. The second time she was united in marriage to R. E. Bennett who passed to the Great Beyond ten years ago survived by his wife and the following children: Mrs. Will Brown of New Boston, Mrs. Will Kent of Sciotoville, Warren Bennett of Nebraska, Miss Chloé Bennett of Sciotoville. Three children died in infancy. Harvey Bennett who was located in San Francisco at the time of the earthquake, was never heard of after that time.

Funeral services will be held Sunday morning at 9:30 o'clock at Harrisonville. Interment will be made in Fairview cemetery. Rev. Elsea of the Wheelersburg M. E. church will conduct the last rites.

Mrs. Victoria Sinnott
Word was received here that Mrs. Victoria Sinnott, the mother of Mrs. Sarah Chapman, died at her home at Greenup, Ky. Mrs. Sinnott was 76 years of age and leaves the following children to mourn her loss: Mrs. Sarah Chapman, of Ironton; Mrs. Lucy Clapp, of Mossy Bottom, Ky., and Mrs. Edith Garthee and Alvin Sinnott, of Greenup.—Irontonian.

FOUR MEN ARE HELD

It was stated by traveling men last night that two stores, a jewelry and a hardware store, had been robbed at Pikeville, Ky., Thursday night and it is thought that the four men being held by the police, Paul Herring, Jas. Moore, John Johnson and Fred Umuis, were the perpetrators.—Irontonian.

SMALL CROWD AT FAIR

The Proctorville Fair closed Friday and it is said the crowd was the smallest that ever attended a Lawrence county fair. Bad weather is blamed for the lack of attendance. The fair this year was only passively successful.

Applications Are Received

Several applications for membership were received at the regular meeting of the Modern Woodmen of America Friday evening, which was brief, owing to the absence of Consul T. C. Patterson and Clerk L. A. Zucker.

WAS KNOWN IN Ironton

The Ironton Irontonian Saturday morning said: "The death of Mrs. Frances Warren Pershing, wife of Brigadier General John J. Pershing, U. S. A., lady was Miss Hutsinpillar's dear school friend and chum, and the Hutsinpillar family was deeply grieved to learn of her tragic demise." —Irontonian.

WHAT'S THIS BAPTISTS ARE GETTING AFRAID OF WATER?

For the second time, the First Baptist Sunday School picnic was called off today on account of rain, and it has been postponed indefinitely. The picnic was originally planned for last Saturday at Millbrook Park, but it was postponed at that time until today, in the hopes that better weather conditions would prevail. But old Jupiter Pluvius is still on the job, making the outing out of question today.

Roy McElhane Named District Man'gr Of W. O. W. Succeeds Ditty

The appointment of Roy McElhane as district manager of the Woodmen of the World for Southern Ohio was made by J. H. Boggs, head consul, of Cincinnati, at the meeting of the River City Camp, Friday evening. He succeeds George A. Ditty, resigned. Mr. McElhane is one of the most prominent and active members of the organization in the city, and his appointment was well received by the membership. He is chief overseer of the Tri-State Log Rolling Association, major in the uniformed rank, consul commander of River City Camp and has often represented the Camp at various conventions of the order.

Head Consul Boggs was the guest of honor at the meeting, and made an instructive talk on the proceedings of the national meeting of the order in Minneapolis last month.

The big class initiation movement in November was officially launched at this meeting. The class will be known as the George A. Ditty class in honor of the former district manager, and it is hoped to have over 100 candidates. Several applications were received at the meeting.

"BOYS IN BLUE" TO HELP BOOST KORN KARNIVAL

Bailey Post, G. A. R., decided at its regular meeting Friday evening to turn out in a body for the Fraternal Parade during the Korn Karnival. Vehicles will probably be provided for them, as in the past. The Post will also participate in the Boosters' Parade on the first night of the Karnival if the committee desires.

The Post also voted to accept the invitation from the Sons of Veterans Auxiliary to attend a camp-fire celebration at the S. O. V. hall on the evening of September 15th. All of the patriotic societies in the city will participate in the patriotic program.

ONLY TEN CENTS WILL BE CHARGED FOR GEEK FAIR

Admission to the Geeks' Indoor Fair beginning September 6, will be ten cents, instead of twenty-five cents, as originally intended. The change was decided upon at a meeting of the executive committee of the Geeks in charge of the affair Friday evening.

The twenty-five cent tickets already sold will be good for three admissions to the fair. Everything is progressing favorably, and a large crowd is almost assured. All of the proceeds will be used to buy shoes and stockings for the poor school children next winter.

Secretary F. W. Baesman sent the following letter to every fraternal society in the city, enlisting the co-operation of each in the worthy movement:

"You are perhaps aware of the fact that the Group of Geeks are going to present an Indoor Fair in this city under dates the 6, 7, 8, 9, 10 and 11 of September, 1915. We are, however, not so certain that you are as familiar with the intent and purpose of this fair as we should like you to be, therefore, ask the privilege of submitting this brief summary.

"The members of the Group of Geeks desire to do their part in the way of taking care of the city's worthy poor children, and decided to undertake such an entertainment for the exclusive purpose of creating a fund with which to provide shoes for every worthy child in Portsmouth, in need during the coming winter.

"Inasmuch as they have undertaken a cause so worthy they are anxious that such be a complete success, and by way of promoting the matter, I desire to enlist the aid of all the Sunday schools in the city. We thought it not unreasonable to ask that each such school arrange for disposing of not less than one hundred tickets among their associates. If this be done we will be in a position to provide shoes for every child in the city that should be so provided from a charity fund.

"Remember every cent derived from the sale of tickets and otherwise at the fair, will positively go into the Shoe Fund. And should any one of your scholars, that have poor parents, need assistance in this particular article, all you have to do is to give an order to the Geeks' secretary from your superintendent of such school, and that child will be provided for without any red-tape or publicity.

"May we not receive your encouragement and call for at least the minimum number of such tickets.

"Thanking you in advance for any assistance you may see fit to grant us, I am,

"Very respectfully,
"F. W. BAESMAN,
"See'y Group No. 1 Geeks."
